Dayville/Monument beats Harper Charter by 1

"There was some hesitation with passing the ball and off-the-ball movement," Studtman said.

After Friday's loss, the Dayville/Monument girls (4-8, 1-0) rebounded with a 40-39 league win over Harper Charter.

An explosive 19-point first quarter propelled the girls basketball team to a 66-17 victory over the Dayville/Monument girls Friday.

Dayville/Monument head coach Cheyenne Perkins was not available for comment.

Panthers head coach Bo Workman said the team continues to play well.

The team is set to host Sherman in Dayville at 4 p.m. Thursday, to travel to Ukiah/Long Creek at 5 p.m. Friday and host Huntington in Monument at 2 p.m. Saturday.

"They played with intensity, got back on defense, and stayed in their lanes," Workman said.

Ukiah/Long Creek loses a tough one to Four Rivers Friday

In the final seconds of the game, junior Aleah Johns hit a half-court shot to close out the game.

Ukiah/Long Creek started off the weekend with a 60-24 loss to Four Rivers.

"I got the ball, and coach (Workman) said to shoot it," Johns said. "I thought it was going to bounce off the backboard. It surprised me when it hit nothing but the net."

Out-numbered and out of practice for a two-game weekend, the team played hard and made some changes halfway through the game, Studtman said.

Next up, the girls will host Jordan Valley (10-4, 1-1) at 2 p.m. Saturday.

The Ukiah/Long Creek (0-5) girls will host Dayville/Monument at 5 p.m. Friday and Adrian (4-11, 1-0) at 2 p.m. Saturday.

matchup, the Prospectors won four matches by pin and the others by forfeit to edge out Reedsport and finish third.

Riddick Hutchison, Isaac Koopman, Jack Strong, Justin Hodge, Damion Young, Quinten Halgarth and Russell Hodge.

Grant Union girls wrestling finished sixth

In the quarterfinal, against Pine Eagle, Jack Stong and Justin Hodge pinned their opponents. Grant Union won the other matches by forfeit.

The girls, who had a different dual team, took sixth out of all divisions (1A-6A). "They competed very well against much larger schools," said coach Andy Lusco.

In the semifinal, Culver won two matches by forfeit, nine by pin and three by decision.

Next up, the Prospectors will host nine teams Friday at the Grant Union Tournament. The competition begins at noon.
