Oregon Head Start provides free pre-school that prepares children, ages 3-4, for kindergarten and beyond by supporting language, literacy, and emotional development.

- ✓ Head Start emphasizes the role of parents as their child's most important teacher
- ✓ Parents learn how best to support their child's educational development.
- ✓ Head Start puts children on the pathway to success

Children are more likely to read by third grade. More likely to graduate from high school, attend college, and receive a post-secondary degree.

UMCHS Head Start Classroom is located at 116 NW Bridge Street in John Day. Class times 8:30 to noon. Transportation, breakfast & lunch provided.
