A Taser and pepper spray were used during an arrest in Canyon City Thursday.

Ian Humbird, 25, of Canyon City resisted arrest on a Grant County bench warrant with the Humbird was walking down Highway 395 near the intersection on Washington Street and Izee Street around 11:17 a.m on May 6.

"The individual resisted arrest by pulling away from the depu-ty's grasp and then fled on foot and was ultimately taken into custody with the assistance of a probation officer near the 300 block of South Humbolt Street," McKinley said.

The Taser and pepper spray had little to no effect on Humbird, McKinley said.

An ambulance was called to the scene, but no one was transported, according to dispatch radio traffic.

Humbird is being held at the Grant County Jail.

Woman dies in ATV crash near Ukiah

Blue Mountain Eagle

Two women were injured and one died in an ATV crash Saturday near Ukiah.

At about 3 p.m. Saturday, Umatilla County Sheriff's Office and Oregon State Police responded to a report of two people injured in an ATV crash in the Hideaway Springs Road east of Ukiah, according to a sheriff's office press release.

Pendleton Fire and Ukiah QRT responded, and medics on scene confirmed the operator of the ATV, Jessica Whitney Ice, a 33-year-old woman from Pendleton, was deceased.

An adult female passenger was transported by ambulance to Ukiah and then flown by helicopter to St. Mary's Hospital in Walla Walla, Washington. She is reportedly in good condition.

Oregon State Police Crash Reconstruction was requested to conduct an investigation of the scene, which is ongoing.

COPS AND COURTS

Arrests and citations in the Blue Mountain Eagle are taken from the logs of law enforcement agencies. Every effort is made to report the court disposition of arrest cases.

Grant County Circuit Court

Byron E. Freniere violated his probation conditions for failure to complete moral reconnection therapy and report as directed. On May 6, he was sentenced to 10 additional hours of community service and ordered to pay a $25 probation violation fee.

Oregon State Police

May 2: A state trooper entered Chester's Thriftway to look for a wanted woman, whose car was in the parking lot. The trooper located Somer L. Robinson, 32, of Dayville at a checkstand and told her she was under arrest. Robinson resisted arrest for several minutes and kicked the trooper in the shin. Robinson screamed loudly over several minutes in Chester's, causing people to stop and watch, and shutting down the checkstand the trooper found her at. With the assistance of a John Day police officer, the trooper took Robinson into custody. During the course of arrest and transport, Robinson damaged the handcuffs, rendering them inoperable. OSP transported Robinson to the Grant County Jail and lodged her on two misdemeanor warrants, resisting arrest, attempted assault of a public safety officer, second-degree criminal mischief and second-degree disorderly conduct.

May 3: A loaded log truck pulling a trailer, also loaded with logs, was northbound negotiating a curve in the roadway when the trailer tipped over and spilled the logs onto the shoulder of the northbound lane and into Canyon Creek. When the logs came off the trailer, the trailer righted itself. A southbound Dodge pickup was struck by rocks and debris, causing minor damage. No injuries were reported. The owner of the logs arranged to have the logs removed from Canyon Creek and the edge of the roadway. Oregon Department of Transportation assisted with traffic control.

May 3: A state trooper responded to a single-vehicle crash near milepost 115 on Highway 395B. The investigation revealed a vehicle was southbound at a stated 50 mph when the driver, Salvador Castillo, 65, swatted at a bee and drove off the southbound shoulder. Castillo over-corrected, crossing both lanes of travel before going off the northbound shoulder, striking a fence at a low speed. Castillo was not injured, and his vehicle was not damaged except for a flat tire. Castillo was issued citations for careless driving causing an accident and driving uninsured.

May 3: A state trooper responded to a reported vehicle fire near milepost 92 on Highway 395B. Investigation revealed a 53-year-old man was northbound pulling a camp trailer when his vehicle stalled. The man got out of his car and discovered it was on fire near the gas tank area. The man stated he just had work done on the gas tank in Pendleton. The man attempted to use a fire extinguisher but was unsuccessful. The vehicle became fully engulfed. Long Creek Fire Department responded and put out the fire. The vehicle was a total loss, and the camper sustained minor damage. Both the camper and vehicle were towed by Frontier Towing.

Sandy and I would like to thank all the people involved with the fine investigative reporting by the Blue Mountain Eagle. In a time when most investigative reporting is being defunded, the parent company of the BME still values its merits. We are most appreciative.

Thank you.
