

Man arrested for firing shots within Mt. Vernon

Blue Mountain Eagle

A Mt. Vernon man was arrested Monday afternoon on unlawful shooting charges.

No one was injured in the incident, but Joshua Fleetwood, 38, of Mt. Vernon was arrested for felon in possession of a weapon, disorderly conduct and unlawful use of a weapon, according to a press release from Grant County Sheriff Todd McKinley.

The sheriff's office, John Day Police Department and Oregon State Police responded to the 400 block of Cottonwood Street in Mt. Vernon at about 2:20 p.m. Monday after receiving a report of shots fired in the area, according to the release.

"The Grant County Sheriff would like to thank the citizens that reported the incident, as they provided valuable information on a situation that could have had far worse results," McKinley said.

Oregon State Police

June 10: At about 9:35 p.m., a trooper responded to a single-vehicle rollover crash blocking the westbound lane of Highway 26 near milepost 165. A deputy already on scene indicated the driver showed signs of impairment and displayed visible injuries. The driver became hostile and combative toward first responders. The trooper identified the driver who was visibly intoxicated with red, bloodshot eyes, slurred speech and alcohol on his breath. The driver refused to speak to the trooper, stating he was going home and was not going to be arrested. The driver was taken into custody and resisted attempts to handcuff him and refused to get into the patrol car. The driver said he wanted an attorney. He was transported to Grant County Jail and placed in a holding cell. After receiving a search warrant, the driver refused to provide a breath sample and was taken to Blue Mountain Hospital where a blood sample was drawn at about 2 a.m. Steven M. Hueckman, 34, of John Day was issued a citation for driving under the influence of intoxicants, caress driving-accident, resisting arrest and tampering with physical evidence.
