September 2021

We need you to help us... improve your community's health.

Are you an Oregon Health Plan member who wants to have a voice in your community's health? If so, your local community advisory council wants to hear from you!

Who:

Oregon Health Plan (OHP) members or members' parents/representatives

What:

- Serve on our community advisory council (CAC) to help us achieve three important goals — better health, better quality of care and lower cost.
- Talk about accessing care — finding a provider, getting an appointment or transportation to appointments and other health care challenges.
- Make recommendations about the Oregon Health Plan.
- Receive a monthly stipend.

When:

The Third Wednesday of each month

Where:

Virtual or in-person at the John Day Fire Hall
