PENDLETON — It's almost time to Let 'er Buck. In its 111th year, Pendleton Round-Up kicks off Saturday, Sept. 11.

The longtime marquee events include rodeo performances and the Happy Canyon Indian Pageant & Wild West Show — however, there's much more to see and do while in Pendleton, including lots of free activities.

Some tickets are sold out, however, but don't fret just yet. The Pendleton Chamber of Commerce coordinates a ticket re-sell program. For more information, call 541-276-7411 or visit www.pepsiticketlocator.com. Also, search local classified pages on Facebook.

In addition, a Let 'er Buck Pass ($18) provides entry into the grounds to enjoy concessions, bars and more. And there are a limited number of non-reserved seats available to enjoy the rodeo in the new Let 'er Buck Zone.

The Main Street Cowboys host The Greatest Free Show in the West Tuesday through Saturday afternoons in the Main Street blocks downtown. It features entertainment and vendor booths. For more information, visit www.mainstreetcowboys.org.

The Round-Up Court and Happy Canyon princesses encourage people to stop and visit with them. They are excited to welcome people to Pendleton.

"It's going to be the best and biggest year we have had in 111 years," said Queen Josilyn Fullerton. "I can't wait to see you all. Let 'er Buck!"
