

Find your way in the Echo Corn Maze

Go! staff

ECHO — Try your navigation skills this fall at the Echo Corn Maze and Pumpkin Patch, which is open throughout the month.

“Our mission at Echo Corn Maze has always been to provide a fun, family-friendly, safe environment,” said owner Gina Tyhuis.

The maze is located at 300 N. Dupont St., 1.5 miles off Interstate-84.

She said the maze started after she and her husband, Bob, adopted their son in October 2016. The project was a way to create a community activity and teach visitors about agriculture. Every year brings new additions — this version includes a sunflower field, cornhole, and glass corn stalks and specialty gourds for sale.

The main corn maze itself is 8 acres of twists and turns. It takes about an hour to complete.

Younger visitors can go through the mini corn maze or the straw bale maze.

“Kids can spend hours digging through the kernels in the corn crib or finding the perfect pumpkin in the patch,” Tyhuis said.

Ages 6 and younger can tour the farm in kiddie carts. There is also a zip line and tunnel maze, and in the evening families can rent cozy fire pits.

The maze is open 11 a.m.-6 p.m. Fridays, 11 a.m.-10 p.m. Saturdays, and 11 a.m.-6 p.m. Sundays. The attraction is reserved for school field trips and group visits Tuesday through Thursday.

Admission is $10 and includes the 8-acre corn maze, corn crib, mini corn maze, straw bale maze and tunnels. An all-day pass plus the Field of Screams is $12. The zip line and kiddie carts are $1 per ride. Fridays feature reduced admission of $5 from 2-6 p.m.

FIELD OF SCREAMS

For the bravehearted, the Field of Screams haunted maze is open Oct. 16, 23, 29 and 30 from 7-9 p.m. Tickets are $12 and include all general admission features.

For more information, visit the Echo Corn Maze on Facebook. Also, admission tickets and fire pit rentals can be purchased online at www.echocornmaze.com.

Masks and social distancing will be required under state guidelines.
