Grant County Circuit Court

Sept. 9: Charges of unauthorized use of a vehicle and unlawful entry into a motor vehicle against David A. McCanna, 56, of Redmond were dismissed as part of a civil compromise. Sept. 28: Bucky Allan Breck was found guilty of violating his probation for possession or use of methamphetamine. Breck's probation was extended by one year or until certain conditions were met. He was ordered to serve 120 days in jail, with credit for time served since his last arrest and the possibility of credit for completing a treatment program of at least 90 days. He was ordered to enter an approved inpatient treatment program by Oct. 25. If he completes the program, any remaining jail time will be vacated and his probation will end. Oct. 8: Michael Dean Gibson, 57, appeared by phone for a sentencing hearing after pleading guilty on Sept. 28 to charges of harassment and furnishing alcohol to someone under 21, both misdemeanors. Gibson was sentenced to 24 months' probation, 40 hours of community service or work crew time, and 10 days in jail on each count, with the sentences to be served concurrently. He was also fined $100 for each count. As a condition of probation, Gibson is to have no contact with any minor female other than immediate family members residing with him.

Oct. 11: Robert Lewis Crosby II was found guilty of violating his probation for a second-degree theft conviction from August 2020. The court ruled that Crosby had failed to notify his probation officer of a change of residence, failed to complete his community service work, failed to pay his financial obligations and failed to complete a behavior modification course. He was ordered to serve 30 days in jail, with credit for time served since his arrest on this charge, and pay his outstanding fines within one year of his release. All other conditions remain in place. His probation was extended to Oct. 10, 2023, and he was warned that his probation will be revoked if he commits another violation.
