POWER HOUSE THEATRE

November 19-21

THE COMFORT TO COME

a world premiere play by Lisa Battle
directed by Nancy Simon

Cass is a woman caring for her mother who suffers from Alzheimer's disease. Eventually, she realizes that as her mother loses touch with reality, she creates a new one; the same fantasy world they created together when she was a child.

The Saturday, November 20th performance will be followed by a Q&A with the playwright.

Stay tuned for our 2022 Season Announcement!
