BAKER CITY — Local actors have collaborated with an acting troupe in Texas to create a holiday-themed DVD to raise funds for the nonprofit organization Cancer for College.

Copies of "Just Be 'Claus' It's Christmas" are on sale now for $15 each at Random Resales, 2450 Cherry St. Each DVD comes with a treat box.

DVDs can also be purchased online at www.actorsstudioinc.com/shop-or-donate-now.

This is a production of Actors Studio Inc. The short plays recorded in Baker City were directed by Cherie Evans. The skits filmed in Texas were directed by Leanne Hinkle, who recently relocated there from Baker County.

Proceeds from the DVD sales will go to Cancer for College, which provides college scholarships to cancer survivors. The nonprofit was founded by Craig

Pollard, who was diagnosed with Hodgkin's disease at age 15. He beat that, but then the cancer came back when he was 19 and attending the University of Southern California. During his senior year at the USC Business School, Pollard wrote a business plan for a charity that would provide college scholarships to cancer survivors. He called it Cancer for College.

The local connection to that nonprofit is Isabella Evans, who beat leukemia and is a four-time recipient of a Cancer for College
