ADVOCATE

Heart of Grant County is hiring for one full-time or two part-time advocate positions. Advocates provide support to victims of domestic trauma, enable survival and healing, and encourage healthy relationships.

Pay: $15 per-hour during training/probationary period; final pay rate depending on experience.

Hours: 15-to-30 hours per-week plus availability for on-call to cover the hotline. 30 or more hours will include benefits.

Requirements: High school diploma or equivalent, advanced education in social services or related field preferred. Experience using technology. Valid driver's license and have insured transportation to transport individuals. Pass a background check and drug screen. The successful applicant will practice positive self-care to manage stress and possess the flexibility to respond immediately to a crisis. Some overnight travel may be required for training or meetings.

Duties: Direct services and advocacy to survivors of domestic violence and abuse, sexual assault, adult and teen dating violence, and stalking according to the guidelines of the agency and federal and state grant requirements. Accompany survivors to legal, medical and any other appointments as requested. Provide general information about support services to friends and families, present educational programs, help distribute educational materials and contact information for assistance, engage in social media outreach, attend and engage in approved trainings. Must always maintain confidentiality and privacy of clients. Respond effectively and appropriately while working with stressful and crisis situations. Project empathy and support without disclosing personal history. Work with a broad range of people coming from diverse backgrounds and life experiences without making judgements. Work independently and with others.

Application deadline: February 25, 2022. Please submit resume and cover letter providing relevant experience and ability to perform duties to Heart of Grant County or the Oregon Employment Department. For questions or job description, please contact Heart of Grant County at 541-575-4335 or email: admin@heartofgrantcounty.org

OPEN UNTIL FILLED.
