PENDLETON — Spring is in the air, and with the beginning of the new season comes fresh excitement that the Pendleton Public Library is ready to share with all. The library's March itinerary is jam-packed with a variety of fun events for both children and adults.

CHILDREN EVENTS

March 12, 10:15 a.m.: Get in the holiday spirit with a St. Patrick's Day themed story time and a Shamrock Treasure Hunt.

March 16, 5 p.m.: American Girl — Accessory Shop. Use your creativity while learning to make unique accessories like a pet habitat, play food, and school supplies for an American Girl doll or any other 18-inch doll. For ages 8-12; registration required.

March 17, 4:30 a.m.: Celebrate St. Patrick's Day by taking part in a rainbow Lego building contest and scavenger hunt.

March 26, 2 p.m.: This month's STEM story time will be spent learning all about space including stories about the solar system.

The Pendleton Public Library hosts special events, such as a recent seminar on the basics of backpacking.

March 29, 4:30 p.m.: STEM Crafternoon that combines crafts and math — learn all about the importance of Pi.

ADULT AND TEEN EVENTS

March 17, 5 p.m.: Learn how to make three different kinds of paper including plain paper, a paper decorated with flowers and leaves, and a paper with seeds that grow when planted. This event is for teens and adults; registration required.

March 18, 6 p.m.: Watch a screening of the 1968 movie "Bullitt" while enjoying popcorn and finish off the night with a discussion. Registration required.
