

COPS AND COURTS

Arrests and citations in the Blue Mountain Eagle are taken from the logs of law enforcement agencies. Every effort is made to report the court disposition of arrest cases.

Circuit Court

April 20: Kyle Lee Kinsey, 33, of John Day was convicted of driving under the influence of intoxicants, sentenced to 18 months of bench probation, assessed $1,255 in fines and fees and ordered to serve two days in jail, with credit for time served. Kinsey was also ordered to complete the Victim Impact panel program, obtain a substance abuse assessment, complete any recommended treatment, not use intoxicants and install an ignition interlock device on his vehicle. In addition, Kinsey's driver's license was suspended for one year. In a separate case, Kinsey pleaded guilty to driving while suspended or revoked and was sentenced to 12 months of bench probation, five days in jail with credit for time served and 25 hours of community service or work crew time, with the sentences to be served consecutively. Kinsey was also fined $1,000.

Cool off by giving our community a new pool!

- Our new swimming pool facility will:
- Give our local youth a place to train and compete in swimming competitions
 - Allow children to learn lifelong water safety skills
 - Offer families a safe and fun spot to relax during the summer
 - Provide exercise options for those with limited mobility

This election, you have the power to give Grant County a modern swimming pool everyone can enjoy.

Vote Tuesday, May 17th and put our local swimmers first!
