ENTERPRISE — "Splish, Splash, Barnyard Bash" is the theme of the Wallowa County Fair, Aug. 5-13, at the Wallowa County Fairgrounds, 668 NW First St.

Admission is free.

On a walk through Cloverleaf Hall, open to the public beginning at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 10, a visitor will see everything from baskets, fiber art, jewelry and leatherwork to hand-sewn clothing, painting, photography, fruit and vegetables.

Events for the old-fashioned county fair kick off with the junior rodeo at 9 a.m. Friday, Aug. 5, and Saturday, Aug. 6. All-Around Boy and All-Around Girl will each win a saddle.

On Saturday, Aug. 6, local youngsters will show their well-coiffed, faithful canines in the 4-H dog show. Action starts at 9 a.m. Obedience and showmanship contests will be staged.

On Sunday, Aug. 7, the 4-H horse show gallops into the spotlight beginning at noon. Dressage and jumping are among the competitions as young equine enthusiasts display their Stetson spirit.

On Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 8-9, the 4-H horse show starts at 8 a.m. The horse awards program concludes festivities in elongated shadows at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 9.

On Wednesday, Aug. 10, Cloverleaf Hall opens to the public for a look at traditional handmade and homegrown exhibits at 10 a.m. The open class baked goods competition offers $25 Ida Hillock Memorial Awards in both the one-crust and two-crust pie divisions.

Livestock weigh-ins run most of the afternoon and evening: beef, 1:30-3:30 p.m.; sheep and goat, 3:30-4:30 p.m.; swine, 4:30-6:30 p.m. Small animal check-in is at 6:30 p.m.

Team roping shows off the best of the Old West Wednesday, Aug. 10, and Friday, Aug. 12, at 7 p.m. For more information, call Tio Simmons at 541-398-2288.

On Thursday, Aug. 11, judging of market animals will culminate at 6:30 p.m. Grand champion market classes will crown winners in beef, goat, sheep and swine.

On Friday, Aug. 12, the penultimate day of the fair, the small animal show begins at 8:30 a.m. as will swine showmanship. Beef showmanship will begin at 10:30 a.m., and sheep and goat showmanship will begin at 3 p.m. All-around showmanship will take place at 6:30 p.m.

The fair ends Saturday, Aug. 13, with Family Day. An awards program at 8:30 a.m. kicks off festivities. Peewee showmanship follows at 10:30 a.m. for pre-4-H kids (younger than fourth grade) with ribbons and $1 cash awards for each participant.

Games on the Grass and Balloon Scramble offer a chance to decompress starting at 11 a.m. Highlights include a wheelbarrow race, three-legged race, water balloon toss and an egg and spoon race. Participants will capture a balloon from the herd released and pop it for a surprise. The FFA barbecue starts at 1 p.m.

Proving this is blue-ribbon bull country, the fair concludes with the 4-H/FFA Fat Stock Sale beginning at 3 p.m. Bidders from the community will offer top dollar to reward youngsters for a year's worth of work.
