

New offerings in CCC's fall lineup

Clatsop Community College community education classes begin later this month and there are several new offerings.

New this fall is Home Brew Beer. If you can make mac and cheese from a box without help, you can make beer, class organizers said. The class is taught by Marc Silva and meets 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sept. 30 and Oct. 14 with additional dates and times throughout the month. Times can vary depending on brewing needs. Cost is $110 and supplies are included.

Also new is Ecopsychology: This class covers the basics of the psychology of how we relate to nature and how we can use the therapeutic properties of nature in mental and physical health care. The class is taught by Rebecca Lexa and meets 6 to 7:30 p.m. Wednesdays, Sept. 27 through Nov. 1.

Interested in the law? Apply here

Applicants are being sought for a new seat on the county Public Safety Coordinating Council.

It's an advisory panel for the Board of Commissioners that develops and recommends plans for providing effective corrections programs for adults and juveniles, and works to ensure there is a continuum of services that promote healthy behavior, ensure the ability to protect the community and hold offenders accountable.

The new position is reserved for a representative of a community-based nonprofit organization that provides services to victims of crime.

The position is for three years. Applications are available online at co.clatsop.or.us, at 800 Exchange St., Suite 410, or by calling 503-325-1000.

This Weekend

Free concert to raise funds for hurricane victims

The Consort of All Sorts

A fundraiser for hurricane relief will be presented by Pioneer Presbyterian Church at 1 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 24.

The Consort of All Sorts is a quartet of local musicians including Hannelore Morgan, recorder; Jan Faber, violin and viola; Phyllis Taylor, cello and second violin; and Liam Carson, bassoon.

The concert is free and all donations will be contributed to hurricane relief efforts.

The group will be playing quartets, trios and duets in a mix of music periods. Included in the program are works by Corelli, Telemann, Shostakovich, as well as Finnish folk music and music by early Irish harper and composer Turlough O'Carolan.

Pioneer Presbyterian is at 3324 Patriot Way, adjacent to Camp Rilea. For more information call 503-861-2421.

Americana singer comes to Fort George Brewery

Jeff Crosby, a singer-songwriter who specializes in Americana ballads, performs Sunday at Fort George Brewery, 1483 Duane St., Astoria.

His new album, "Cold Summer," was released earlier this month and will be followed by "Postcards From Magalena" on Oct. 27.

After spending the last two years splitting his time between playing guitar for Widespread Panic songwriter Jerry Joseph and performing with his own band, Crosby hit the studio.

The collection of songs was inspired by the places and cultures Crosby experienced while traveling across the United States, Iceland, Great Britain, Colombia and Nicaragua.

Fort George is at 1483 Duane St., Astoria. The show begins at 8 p.m. and there is no cover.

Class for those wanting to help in a disaster

A 20-hour Comprehensive Shelter Training course begins this weekend.

The free class includes basic food safety, psychological first aid, serving people with functional and access needs, and basic shelter setup and operations. It is sponsored by the Red Cross, the college and several emergency preparedness groups.

The class spans two weekends and will be held in Room 310 of Towler Hall at Clatsop Community College.

Class hours are 6 to 9 p.m. Sept. 22 and 29, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sept. 23 and 30, and 1 to 5 p.m. Oct. 1.

To register, call the college at 503-338-2402 or call 503-325-6886.

Bayshore's picnic for patrons, pets

Bayshore Animal Hospital will have a customer appreciation picnic from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 23, at their center, 325 S.E. Marlin Ave.

There will be free food, prizes and give-aways, as well as a quilt raffle. Pets are welcome on leashes.
