

New season begins for Miss Clatsop County program

The Miss Clatsop County organization seeks teens and young women interested in the group's programs, which include Miss Clatsop County, Miss North Coast, Miss Clatsop County's Outstanding Teen and Miss North Coast's Outstanding Teen.

The organization is open to ages 13 to 24.

Contestants must reside, attend school or work in Clatsop, Tillamook or Columbia counties.

The nonprofit corporation was established to give contestants an opportunity to enhance their professional and educational goals with the assistance of monetary grants and awards.

Miss Clatsop County is an official preliminary competition for Miss Oregon, which is a part of the Miss America Organization, the world's leading scholarship provider for women.

In 2017, Miss Clatsop County made more than $5,000 in scholarships available to local women.

Applications are available on the group's website, www.missclatsopcounty.org. More information is available by calling 503-717-3501. Deadline to enter is Dec. 1.
