

This Weekend

Folk and pop on tap at Liberty

The Shook Twins, a Portland-based indie folk-pop band, will appear at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 10 at the Liberty Theater, 1203 Commercial St., Astoria.

Identical twins Katelyn and Laurie are the group's main songwriters and they're known for their harmonies and eclectic blend of folk, roots, groove and soul.

Also appearing will be Bart Budwig, whose fifth full-length record, "Paint By Numbers Jesus," recently was released. It is a meditation on Jesus as a cultural figure.

Doors open at 7 p.m. Tickets are $15 and available at the box office or online at Libertyastoria.showare.com.

High school hosts holiday fair

A holiday shopping and community fair is from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 11, in the Warrenton High School gym.

There will be local artists, Christmas wreaths, spa products and a variety of vendors.

Proceeds benefit The Harbor, an intervention, recovery and support program, as well as the Warrenton High School Student Council.

Veterans Day events include art, honor, celebration

Rep. Deborah Boone will speak at a Veterans Day event celebrating the 242 birthday of the Marine Corps.

The event is set for 5:30 p.m. Nov. 11 at the Astoria Golf and Country Club, 33445 Sunset Beach Lane, Warrenton.

Tickets are $35 per person and can be purchased by calling Gene Strong at 360-465-2487 or Lou Neubecker at 503-717-0152.
