

WE START
BY LENDING
AN EAR.

We take time to understand your business needs, so we can help solve them.

No two businesses are alike. So cookie cutter loans won't cut it. At Columbia Bank, we work closely with you from the beginning of the loan process to make sure we're setting you up with the right loan to reach your unique business goals. Which means we do something other banks don't always do—listen. Visit ColumbiaBank.com.

 Columbia Bank
WHERE RELATIONSHIPS RULE

Member FDIC  Equal Housing Lender

Volunteer bell-ringers sought

Lower Columbia Power Squadron will serve as bell ringers for the Salvation Army in front of Fred Meyer during the Christmas season which began Nov. 24.

It's the 14th year the organization, which focuses on boating safety and instruction, has been involved in the project.

Last year, the squadron raised $16,000 for the charity, which uses the money for projects in Clatsop County.

All bell ringers are volunteers and more volunteers are needed. Hours are noon to 5 p.m. daily with volunteers working two-hour shifts.

To volunteer, call Ronald Collman at 503-861-1368 or 503-440-1097.

Reader's theater tackles Dickens

A reader's theater production of the classic Charles Dickens novella, "A Christmas Carol," is set for four nights in December. This touring production includes early Christmas carols.

Tickets are $5 to $15. Shows are at 7 p.m. Dec. 6, 7, 13 and 14 in the McTavish Room above the Liberty Theater, 1203 Commercial St., Astoria.

To buy tickets, go online to libertyastoria.org or call 503-325-5922.

Spot open on charity's board

Warrenton Kids Inc. has an open two-year position available on its board of directors.

If interested, send an email request for an application or more information to warrentonkidsinc@gmail.com or come to the next board meeting at 6:30 p.m. Dec. 4 in the Warrenton Grade School cafeteria.