Golf ball drop benefits local schoolkids

Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific has its 11th annual Golf Ball Drop at 3 p.m. Saturday, May 12, at Astoria Golf and Country Club, 33445 Sunset Beach Road.

Golf balls are $10, which is used to benefit school programs throughout Clatsop County. The 2,000 individually sponsored balls are dropped from a helicopter; those landing closest to the pin win prizes.

Tickets are available at Holly McHone Jewelers in Astoria.

It will be followed by a cocktail party and silent auction. Tickets for the party and auction are $25 and sold separately.

Master Gardener program to have plant sale Saturday

Clatsop County Master Gardener Association will have its spring garden seminar and plant sale from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, May 12, at the Clatsop County Fairgrounds. Admission is free.

Included are classes, vendors, raffles and gardening advice.

Several classes are offered, including "Edible Vertical Gardening in Small Spaces" from 11 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., "Designing with Native Plants" from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m., and "Grafting Vegetables" from 1:45 to 3 p.m.

Letter carriers to collect food for local food bank

The largest one-day food drive in Oregon and the nation is Saturday, May 12.

Volunteers and letter carriers will collect food on behalf of the National Association of Letter Carriers' Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive.

More than 4,000 letter carriers in Oregon and Clark County, Wash., will collect canned and shelf-stable foods set out at mailboxes of postal customers.

Last year, 1 million pounds was collected. While this is a national campaign, donated food stays in the community where it is collected.

College to celebrate new art books with reception Thursday

The Dora Badollet Library at Clatsop Community College will celebrate the addition of new art books to its collection with a public reception from 4 to 6 p.m., Tuesday, May 15.

The public is invited to the free event.

Light refreshments will be provided.

Each year, the library receives free books from Art Resources Transfer, an organization that distributes materials on art and cultural issues to public, school and alternative libraries in rural and inner-city areas through the Distribution to Underserved Communities Library program.

Scores of art books will be on display, including works on Carol Bove, Walker Evans, LaToya Ruby Frazier, Mona Hatoum, Huang Yong Ping and Fred Sandback.

An engaging week of art activities continues at 6 p.m. Thursday, May 17, with the opening of the 2018 Annual Student Art Show at the Royal Nebeker Gallery.
