

ONLY ONE BANK TOOK THE TIME TO GET TO KNOW ME.

Edouardo Jordan | Chef/Owner | Salare

Long before Edouardo opened his restaurant, Columbia Bank got to know him and understand his vision.

We saw the savviness of his business plan and the value of his credentials when other banks didn't. Together, we created a financial strategy and went through the entire SBA loan process side by side. It was the perfect recipe for success, and accolades. See how good your relationship with a bank can be.

"Kaitiaki" sculptures by Baye Riddell are featured in the exhibit.

New Zealand artists featured

Clatsop Community College will present a lecture and slide show featuring nine artists from 1 to 4 p.m. Oct. 17 in the college's arts building.

Featured artists are Baye Riddell, Wi Taepa, Paerau Corneal, Dorothy Waetford, Carla Ruka, Rhonda Halliday, Stevei Houkamau, Karuna Douglas and Todd Douglas.

The artists are part of the Nga Kaihanga Uku/Maori Clay Artists Collective in New Zealand. The collective began in 1987 and was the birth of a new movement in world ceramics.

Riddell had begun his career as a potter 13 years earlier, ostensibly the first full-time Maori potter.

In later years, Riddell was joined by others and they were dubbed the Tight Five or Nga Tokorima. They have since nurtured and been added to by an accomplished new generation of artists.
