fers the "Haunted Experience" nightly through Halloween.

Children and others who are faint of heart can go through from 4 to 6 p.m.; those who want a good scare should go later, from 6 to 10 p.m.

Admission is $8 for adults or $6 for children 10 and younger.

Haunted Experience is at 111 Broadway in Seaside, across from the bumper cars.

HAUNTED COVE

KOA will have a Haunted Cove from 6 to 9 p.m. Oct. 26 and 27.

Admission is $3 per person or three nonperishable food items. Visitors should check in at the pull-up zone at the front of the campground.

All proceeds benefit Clatsop Community Action Regional Food Bank and KOA Care Camps.

The campground is at 1100 N.W. Ridge Road, Hammond.

HALLOWEEN HOUSE

Mike and Teale Adelman's home, the D.K. Warren House, has its annual light show running from dusk until 10 p.m. through Halloween.

The light show is set to music with drivers instructed to tune their radios to hear music and watch the show.

The house, an 1885 Victorian on the National Register of Historic Places, belonged to the man for whom Warrenton is named. The Adelmanns purchased it in 2014 and soon after Mike Adelman began his passion of decorating for public shows on both Halloween and Christmas.

Donations for Warrenton-Hammond Healthy Kids are accepted at a box on the telephone pole next to the "Tune to 95.7" sign.

BATS, SPIDERS AND OWLS OH MY!

Stories, activities and exploration of night creatures begins at 5 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 27, at the Fort Clatsop Visitor Center.

The night includes fun stories about night creatures on a ranger-led night hike of about a quarter-mile.

All zombies, vampires, superheroes, princesses, and others are welcome and should wear sturdy shoes and bring a flashlight.

Participants can enjoy crafts and treats inside the visitor center while waiting for the walk.

The last walk starts at 6:30 p.m. For more information, call 503-861-4414.

HALLOWEEN HAPPENINGS

Seaside merchants have several holiday activities this weekend leading up to Halloween.

Saturday, Oct. 27: Free family activities throughout the afternoon in downtown

Seaside, including a pet parade and costume contest at 4 p.m. and a haunted surrey parade at 5:30 p.m. Many of the merchants will have special activities for children including coloring, a scavenger hunt, spray-on tattoos and more.

Evening adult activities include a 7 p.m. concert at the Elks Lodge and an 11:30 p.m. showing of "Rocky Horror Picture Show" at Times Theater and Public House.

TALKING TOMBSTONES

Clatsop County Historical Society presents Talking Tombstones XV, "Death Becomes Heard," from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 28, at Ocean View Cemetery.

The free event allows visitors to visit the graves of notable Astoria and Warrenton residents, where actors will portray them and tell their stories.

Visitors should arrive no later than 3 p.m. The cemetery is at Delaura Beach Lane and Whiskey Road in Warrenton. For more information, call 503-325-2203.

PIZZA FOR A CAUSE

Fired up for pizza, a fund-raiser for Warrenton Fire Department's community projects, begins at 5 p.m. Monday, Oct. 29, at Warrenton Fultano's, 78 E. Harbor Dr.

It's the end of both National Pizza and National Fire Prevention month.

Firefighters will serve the pizza and work for tips.

SAFE TRICK OR TREATING

Both Astoria and Seaside will offer safe downtown Trick or Treating.

Astoria's event is from 3 to 5 p.m. Oct. 31 along Commercial and Duane streets and Marine Drive. It is hosted by Astoria Downtown Historic District Association.

Seaside's is from 2 to 5 p.m. on Broadway and is sponsored by Seaside Downtown Development Association.
