

Members of Pyxis Quartet include one very dark number in their repertoire.

Pyxis Quartet keeps audience in dark

Pyxis Quartet will perform at 7:30 p.m. Friday, June 21, at the Liberty Theatre, 1203 Commercial St., Astoria.

Members of the string quartet also are members of the Oregon Symphony. Their classical selections include George Friedrich Haas'

"String Quartet No. 3," for which the theater will be completely dark.

Tickets are $35 reserved seating and can be purchased online at libertyastoria.org or at the box office from 2 to 5:30 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday.

This weekend

Dance studio to present recitals

Maddox Dance Studio will present three student dance recitals this weekend in the auditorium at Astoria High School, 1001 W. Marine Drive.

Performances are at 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday with a third show at 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

The Saturday matinee features intermediate to advanced students. The Sunday matinee is for the youngest students.

The Saturday evening show highlights pre-teens through adult dancers.

General admission tickets are $10 at the door.

Members of Blind Pilot pose on the streets of Portland.

Blind Pilot sets two Astoria shows

Blind Pilot will perform with the 45th Parallel Universe Orchestra at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday, June 14 and 15, at the Liberty Theatre, 1203 Commercial St.

Blind Pilot formed in Portland in 2007 and includes Israel Nebeker, Ryan Do-browski, Kati Claborn, Dave Jorgensen, Ian Krist and Luke Ydstie. They've released three studio albums and have appeared on Ellen, The Late Show and at Lollapalooza.

Helios Camerata, a 45th Parallel Universe ensemble, joins aspects of old and new chamber music, bluegrass, jazz, fiddle and folk.

Tickets are $35 and available at libertyastoria.org or at the box office from 2 to 5:30 p.m.

Tattered flags get final DAR salute

The Astoria chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution will hold a retirement ceremony for old tattered American flags at 1 p.m. Friday, June 14, at Fort Stevens Historical Park.

The public is invited. Flags in need of retirement may be given to any member or taken to City Lumber.

Women interested in joining the chapter should call Sue Glen, 503-861-0574, for an application.
