

FOURTH OF JULY FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY IN ASTORIA AND WARRENTON!

FIREWORKS RETURN TO DOWNTOWN

Photo provided by Frank Allen.

The Astoria-Warrenton Area Chamber of Commerce presents the 4th of July fireworks!

Show begins at dusk with fireworks shot from a barge near downtown Astoria. Grab a chair or blanket and a flashlight, then join us along the riverwalk to enjoy the show.

Special thanks to WCT Marine, Hyak Tongue Point, CFMS and your Chamber Ambassadors for making this celebration possible.

ASTORIA
WARRENTON
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

WEDNESDAY, JULY 3RD
6:30p.m.: Free Concert "Spirit of Adventure" North Coast Symphonic Band at Liberty Theatre with service flags from American Legion Clatsop Post #12

THURSDAY, JULY 4TH
11a.m. to 3p.m.: Warrenton's Old-Fashioned Fourth Barbecue, Car & Motorcycle Show, Kids Activities

3p.m.: Warrenton 4th of July Parade
Route follows South Main Avenue from the Post Office to SW 9th Street

Dusk: Fireworks above the Columbia River
The fireworks will be shot from a barge in river by Columbia River Maritime Museum

FIND MORE HOLIDAY INFO AND EVENTS ON OUR COMMUNITY CALENDAR AT OLDOREGON.COM

This weekend

Great Race 2019 visits Barbey Maritime Center

The Great Race, a 36-year-old controlled-speed endurance road rally with antique cars, will come through the area Saturday, June 29.

The nine-day, 2,300-mile race along the West Coast began in Riverside, Calif., and ends in Tacoma, Wash. There are 120 automobiles in this year's race.

Drivers will participate in a morning pit stop, with autos arriving in one-minute intervals, from 10 a.m.

A Hudson arrives in Riverside, one of 80 cars participating in the Great Race.
Courtesy Great Race 2019

to noon at Barbey Maritime Center, 2042 Marine Drive. Spectators can visit and talk with the drivers and look at the cars.

More information about the race is available at greatrace.com.

'Junior' Shanghaied this weekend in Astoria

"A Night at the Olios," the kids' performance of "Shanghaied in Astoria," will be performed June 29 and 30 at the Astor Street Opry Company Playhouse, 129 W. Bond St., Astoria.

The play is directed by Ashley Mundel with musical direction by Chris-Lynn Taylor.

Performances are at 7 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday.

Tickets are $5 in ad-

Olios includes more than a dozen young performers ages 8 to 18.

vance at asocplay.com or $7 at the door.

The box office opens an hour before performances, and the doors open 30 minutes early.

Apprenticeship program offers two concerts

Lovers of opera will appreciate this weekend's talent lineup.

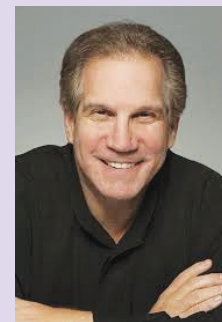

Giacomo Puccini's comic opera, "Gianni Schicchi," will be presented at 7 p.m. Friday, June 28, at the Clatsop Community College Performing Arts Center, 588 Franklin St., Astoria.

The performance is part of Astoria Music Festival's Opera Apprenticeship Program and will showcase the talents of Claire Hudkins and Mark Ross Clark.

Admission is $15 and available at the door. More information is available at supportthepac.org.

The following day, apprentice artists will perform a concert headlined by famed Metropolitan Opera tenor Allan Glassman, who will also serve as master of ceremonies.

The performance is free and begins at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 29, at the Liberty Theatre, 1203 Commercial St., Astoria.

Glassman

Glassman, an Astoria favorite, sang the role of Cavardossi in Puccini's Tosca last year, and has sung leading roles in opera houses throughout the United States and Europe.

The Saturday concert will feature a variety of musical styles, including opera, operetta, and familiar Broadway favorites.