from franchise fees (paid by utilities and cable companies), transient taxes (from hotel and campground customers), state shared revenues (taxes on liquor, marijuana and cigarettes), fees and fines.

Some city departments and projects are intended to be funded in full or in part by user fees, such as when developers pay fees for a city planner to review and approve building plans. Water, sewer and trash fees should pay for those services. Gasoline taxes should pay to improve roads.

But in nearly every case, Warrenton's user fees fall short and the shortage must be covered by the general fund.

Warrenton voters also chose to tax themselves to pay for library services and additional police services.

This year, property owners will pay $1.67 per thousand dollars of assessed value for general government, 33 cents for the library and 28 cents for police.

Grants will cover parts of some projects, including replacing and improving water and sewer services in Hammond and improvements at

WARRENTON-HAMMOND SCHOOLS

The school board approved a $64 million budget in mid-June that includes a spending plan for the construction levy voters approved last year.

Just over $46 million is being used to purchase property for a new middle school and begin construction.

About $11 million goes to paying teachers and other employees, about $2.3 million will fund food services and other school programs and the rest will pay off already incurred debt.

Property owners will pay $4.59 per $1,000 of assessed property value to fund the school budget.

CLATSOP COUNTY
County commissioners approved an $84.42 million budget for 2019-20.

Property tax owners will pay $1.53 per $1,000 of assessed property value.

The board also voted to earmark $250,000 from the contingency fund toward a proposed watershed protection project in Arch Cape.

Road work

WARRENTON

•A project to improve Youngs Bay Bridge on Highway 101 is under way and expected to continue through 2021. A containment structure attached to the sides of the bridge was built and most of the work is being done from a barge beneath the bridge.

There will be periodic single-lane closures at night.

ASTORIA

•A project to replace six aging bridges along Astoria's waterfront will continue through June 2020. Seventh, Ninth and Eleventh streets are being rebuilt with an expected completion sometime this month. Construction on Sixth, Eighth and Tenth streets begins after that.

SEASIDE

•Work crews are removing and replacing a separator island on Highway 101 between 10th and 12th avenues in Seaside. There will be single-lane closures at night to allow the contractor to perform concrete pours, with all lanes open by 4 a.m. During the day, traffic lanes will be shifted to accommodate traffic.

•The Dooley Bridge, just north of the Highway 101 junction with Highway 26 is undergoing repair, including soft spot fixes, asphalt grinding and inlay, centerline rumble strips and new striping. There will be single-lane closures between 8 p.m. and 7 a.m. on weekdays only.

CLATSOP COUNTY

•County crews are mowing and chopping around Astoria and Knappa.

•John Day River Road is undergoing road maintenance, although no delays are expected.

•Taylorville Road is being chip-sealed.
