DAWN DIAMOND
EDWARDS CORDER
Warrenton

Dawn Edwards Corder, an in-home health care provider, died at home July 11 after a long battle with cancer. She was 55.

Corder was born in 1964 to Lawrence and Barbara Diamond in Spokane, Wash., and moved to Clatsop County as a child. She attended Astoria High School.

She enjoyed road trips, spending time with her family and was known to loved ones as “the cat lady” because her cats were her pride and joy.

She was preceded in death by her son, Anthony White, who was killed by a hit-and-run driver in 2005; she was obsessed with finding justice for Tony and the case remains unsolved.

She is survived by her husband, Richard Corder; two sons, Earl Nollen of Salem and Justin Rogers of Astoria; one daughter, Trisha Ramsey of Gatesville, Texas; three sisters, Babette Bonnie of New Hampshire; Jeannette Ross of Raymond, Wash., and Dnette Woolard of Bremeron, Wash.; and several grandchildren.

A celebration of life will be held at a future date. Ocean View Funeral and Cremation Services is in charge of arrangements.

Arrests: More charges expected

Wednesday. “The adult we arrested was not mentioned by anybody.”

The adult and two girls who were arrested made full confessions, Workman added.

The presence of graffiti sends a message that nobody cares, that gangs are moving in or that the vandals are bored, angry or vengeful. Warrenton was quick to respond.

“There’s a cost associated with that,” Workman said. “We had to pull multiple public works employees from their regular duties to clean up and paint over the graffiti, purchase the paint, pressure-wash, sand and there are some things that have to be replaced.”

Balensifer said he was encouraged to see the number of citizens, church groups and civic organizations that volunteered to help the city once they heard about the vandalism.

“Despite the aggravating and disappointing acts of a few, the citizens of Warrenton continue to show their community spirit is undaunted,” he said. “I want to praise the police and public works department for their rapid response to clean and investigate this matter.”

Brandon Gillette, 40, who has no known address, was the sole adult among those arrested for vandalism.

“We’re a little concerned a 40-year-old is hanging out with juveniles,” the chief said. “We’re looking into making sure no other crimes were committed by this individual.”

Anyone with information about the crime is urged to email Officer Robert Wirt at rwirt@ci.warrenton.or.us or call 503-325-8661 and ask to speak to an on-duty officer.
