

ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

MELIA KAPUA, SENIOR
VOLLEYBALL

Melia has anchored the offense and stepped up to take a leadership role, her coach said. She led the team in passing percentage and digs in wins over Knappa and Jewell.

DEVIN JACKSON, SENIOR FOOTBALL

Devin had an outstanding outing at the jamboree last week on both sides of the ball, his coach said. Devin averaged 5.7 yards per rush and amassed two sacks in limited repetitions during the jamboree.

Warriors Volleyball has disappointing match

Although Warrenton won the first set in last week's volleyball match against the Portland Christian Royals, they lost the next three sets and the match.

"I was happy with everything but our service reception," Coach Staci Miethe said after the game at Warrenton.

"We played well at the net but, after all, we were just overmatched. They are the defending 2A State Champs," she said.

The match was played later than usual because the Royals arrived late and missed the starting time. The disruption to their schedule was evident in their play during the first game.

Late in the first game, as the score was tied at 23-23, Stevey Berry served an ace. That put the Warriors up 24-23. And then the Warriors squeaked by taking the next point to win the first set 25-23.

But, unfortunately, that was the last time the Warriors would prevail. They lost the next three sets 18-25, 13-25, and 9-25.

On Tuesday, Warrenton hosted a triple dual tournament with Seaside and Rainier. The Warriors beat Rainier 25-11, 25-2, and 25-17 in the opening match.

They then lost to Seaside 19-25, 21-25, and 23-25 in the closer.

Warrenton gets a RARE opportunity

The city has a new resource. Morgan Murray comes from RARE (Resource Assistance for Rural Environments), an AmeriCorps program administered by the University of Oregon to assist small rural communities with planning and technical help.

She'll work on a variety of parks and recreation-related projects, including the launch of Sunday Streets.

Spruce aphid is meeting's topic

Coastal residents concerned about a "sickly" spruce tree in their yard are urged to attend an informational meeting on the spruce aphid at 2 p.m. Monday, Sept. 16, at the Bob Chisholm Center, 1225 Avenue A, Seaside.

The program will be led by Christine Buhl, a forest entomologist with the Oregon Department of Forestry.

Football team loses to Yamhill

BY BRUCE DUSTIN
The Columbia Press

Warrenton's football team lost 34-39 to Yamhill-Carlton during last Friday's home game.

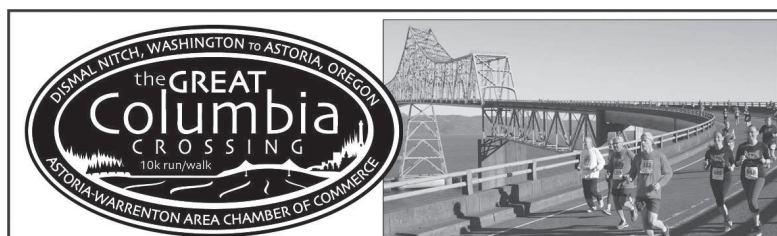

"It was an offensive shootout between Yamhill and us," Coach Ian O'Brien said. "There were over 800 yards of offense between the two of us. But we definitely didn't do a good job of containing their quarterback

(Jaime Garcia)."

Jake Morrow had 20 pass completions out of 31 attempts for 303 yards and four touchdowns. Austin Little had 193 receiving yards for two TDs. Hordie Bodden had two TDs, one receiving and the other rushing.

On defense, Sam Irwin stepped forward. He had six tackles, with one for a loss.

The Warriors next game is Sept. 13 at Creswell.
