

Halloween: Find fun and spooky

Continued from Page 1

urged to turn their car radio to 95.7-FM and watch the lights, which are choreographed to holiday music.

Money donated in a collection box in front of the home will be donated to Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific.

MYSTERIOUS BODIES

The Liberty Theatre plays host to an unusual Halloween show at 7 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 19.

"BloodyVox" features the performers from Portland-based BodyVox, a troupe that combines dance, theater and film into performances rich in imagery, athleticism and humor. The group formed in 1997 and has toured around the globe, producing nine films, 30 original shows and three operas.

Promoters say the show brings Halloween to life by channeling Alfred Hitchcock, Bella Lugosi and Boris Karloff. While family-friendly, it may not be suitable for all ages.

Reserved-seat tickets are $20 to $35 for adults and $5 for those younger than 18 and available at libertyastoria.showare.com.

HAUNTED COVE

Astoria-Warrenton-Seaside KOA will have its annual haunted cove from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday nights until Halloween. This year's theme is

"Sleepy Hollow" and includes a headless horseman. It's a bit less scary before 7 p.m.

Haunted cove is open to the public for $3 or three nonperishable food items, which benefit the Clatsop County Food Bank and KOA Care Camp.

Those camping at the KOA can participate in a costume contest and site-decorating contest, both at 5:30 p.m. Saturdays in the Big Foot Building.

Visitors to the haunted cove must check in at the park entrance, and will be directed to haunted cove.

SPOOKY SWIMMING

Sunset Empire Park and Recreation will have its annual Fall Fun Fest and Spooky Swim from 4 to 8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 19.

From 4 to 6 p.m., there will be carnival games, a cake walk, a photo booth and snacks, with a costume contest at 5 p.m.

The Spooky Swim follows from 6 to 8 p.m.

Both are at Bob Chisholm Community Center, 1140 Broadway St., Seaside. Admission is $2 or two cans of food, which covers both events.

PUMPKIN PATCH

A pumpkin patch and harvest festival is open weekends from noon to 4 p.m. Oct. 5 through 27, and Two Old Goats Farm and Feed, 42232 Kylester Road in Knappa.

Left: Mike and Teale Adelmann and their musically decorated Warren House. Right: A scene from BloodyVox.

a petting zoo, hayrides, and "trunk-or-treating."

The event is sponsored by Warrenton Business Association.

AFTER-HARVEST PARTY

Clatsop County Fair & Expo will have its second annual After-Harvest Party from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 26, at the fairgrounds, 92937 Walluski Loop, Astoria.

There will be a pumpkin patch for children, face-painting, fresh-pressed cider and photo opportunities.

SPOOKY CRITTER WALKS

"Bats, Spiders, Owls — Oh My!," an annual family friendly semi-spooky event, will be held at 5 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 26, at Fort Clatsop.

The event includes a free evening of stories and activities, plus an exploration of night creatures on a ranger-led night hike.

The last walk of the evening starts at 6:30 p.m. at the Fort Clatsop Visitor Center. The walk is about a quarter mile over an uneven trail through the dark forest, so participants should wear sturdy shoes and bring a flashlight.

There will be crafts and treats inside the visitor center for those waiting for the walk. For more information, call 503-861-4414.

ADULT COSTUME CONTEST

South Jetty Bar will have its annual Halloween celebration beginning at 9 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 26.

Attendees must be 21 or older and have a chance to win prizes of $100, $75 and $25.

Karaoke begins at 9 p.m. and is followed by the costume contest at 10 p.m. Prizes will be awarded at midnight.

South Jetty Bar is at 1015 Pacific Drive, Hammond.

TALKING TOMBSTONES

"Talking Tombstones XVI: Game of Bones," this year's installment of an annual event sponsored by Clatsop County Historical Society, will bring the dead back to life at a Warrenton cemetery.

Former citizens are expected to return from the great beyond for a graveside chat with all those who visit their tombstone. The event is from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 27, at Ocean View Cemetery on DeLaura Beach Lane.

The event is free, but donations are accepted.

Visitors should plan to arrive no later than 3 p.m. as the deceased begin to fade from view as the darkness draws near.

For more information, call 503-325-2203.

ROCKY HORROR

Times Theatre & Public House in Seaside will have three showings of the 1975 cult classic "The Rocky Horror Picture Show" at 11 p.m. on Oct. 25 and 26 and at 9 p.m. on Oct. 27.

The movie is about a newly engaged couple whose car breaks down in an isolated area and they happen upon the bizarre residence of Dr. Frank-N-Furter. The movie stars Tim Curry, Susan Sarandon and Barry Bostwick and includes a musical appearance by Meat Loaf.

The theater is at 133 Broadway.

DOWNTOWN TRICK OR TREAT

Astoria Downtown Historic District Association is sponsoring safe trick-or-treating in downtown Astoria from 3 to 5 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 31.

Participating shops will have an orange pumpkin in the front window.

Halloween Spooktacular

Sat., Oct. 26, 9pm

The Greatest HALLOWEEN COSTUME CONTEST Ever!

Win prizes of $25, $75 and $100!

SOUTH JETTY BAR
1015 Pacific Drive, Hammond

AREA PROPERTIES
Specializing in Residential,
NOT Haunted, Properties

Meagan Lewis
1490 Commercial St.
Astoria 503-440-0155