

Wrestling teams show team effort

The Warrenton girls wrestling team traveled to Liberty High School last Saturday to compete in the Liberty Invitational. They finished 11th out of a 29-team tournament. Hoorah for our girls.

The girls had fourth place finishes from Alejandra Nestor at 100 pounds, Divine Godwin at 125, and Marlie Annat at 145.

Anna Schenbeck at 140 and Isabella Carr at 170 brought home fifth-place trophies.

The boys team went to

Wahkiakum High School on the same day to wrestle schools mostly from Washington in the Down River Challenge.

The tournament lead bounced back and forth between Kalama and Warrenton through the semifinal.

We had not secured the team win, though, until Nic Pior picked up a fall in the 145 final.

Every win, pin, and point mattered. It was a total team effort.

The girls are at Jefferson on Friday, Dec. 27, and the boys are at Clatskanie on Saturday, Dec. 28.

Making the holidays bright

Individual and family volunteers wrap Christmas gifts donated to Warrenton-Hammond Healthy Kids and Toys for Tots. They were handed out to 283 Warrenton children selected by the school district.
