

Girl Scout Cookie sales begin in earnest

The Girl Scout Cookie campaign has an uplifting message for 2020.

A new cookie, Lemon-Ups, include inspiring messages baked onto the cookies such as "I'm a go-getter" and "I'm an innovator."

The scouts began taking orders last month, but you can find the young entrepreneurs with actual boxes of cookies to sell outside local businesses this month.

Scouts get their table ready for cookie sales in the foyer of a large market.

There will be additional sales days in early March, and there will be scouts at the Safeway stores in Astoria and Seaside.

All net revenue earned from cookie sales remains within the local region.

"I am inspired by the life skills that are being developed in the cookie program," said Victoria Foreman, director of the product program for Girl Scouts of Oregon and Southwest Washington. "Girls are developing a strong sense of self by participating, learning skills to succeed, and problem solve to manage setbacks as they build their Cookie businesses."

There are 14,500 girls in kindergarten through 12th grade in the local region.

Wrestlers win third tourney title

By CORY CONANT

WHS wrestling coach

The Warriors wrestling team competed in the Beach Brawl last Friday and won the team title. It was the third tournament win of the season.

The team scored a lot of bonus points for falls and everybody contributed. Sam Irwin won the title at 220 pounds, and Jade Vollner and Isabella Carr each won in the girls division.

The district is made up of almost entirely different teams in our region. So, while we are thrilled to win, we still have work to do against district-relevant teams.

We had a second day of duals on Tuesday this week. The duals determine seeding for the district tournament on Feb. 13 and 14 in Amity. Jan. 29 was the first day of districts.

We won some important match-ups against Amity, Clatskanie, Rainier and Taft. We still have some tough competition coming up against Yamhill-Carlton, Dayton, and Willamina.

It's an exciting time and we can't wait to wrestle at District.

The girls travel to Century High School for the Northern Regional on Friday and Saturday. The top four girls in each weight class qualify for state. This is an increase and an improvement from last year's top-two qualifying formula.

Four girls will qualify from the Southern Regional to create an eight-girl competitive state bracket.

Comments sought on coastal plan

The state seeks comments on a draft strategy and mapping tool for Oregon's rocky coastal areas.

Comments will be accepted through March 1 at OregonOcean.info.

Just over 40 percent of Oregon's 362-mile coastline is made up of rocky habitat, which includes dramatic headlands, tide pools, rocky beaches, cliffs, and offshore rocks. The sites are managed by multiple state and federal agencies using a coordinated framework, known as the Territorial Sea Plan.
