

Hiking club sponsors walk around Cannon Beach

Angora Hiking Club's first hike of the year is Saturday, Feb. 22, in Cannon Beach.

The easy 3 1/2 mile hike includes in-town pocket parks, a spruce reserve, ponds for bird-watching and a "secret" viewpoint of Haystack Rock.

To join, call hike leader June Baumler at 503-368-4323.

The hike will begin about 9:45 a.m. from the free bus parking area in the 1100 block of South Hemlock. There are restrooms adjacent to the lot.

Membership is not a requirement for joining the hike.

Do your kids a favor.

Make your funeral, cremation or cemetery plans in advance. We can help.

College news

Maria Heyen, a 2019 Warrenton High School graduate, is one of 42 students selected as a new strengths coach for the Clifton Strengths Institute at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln College of Business.

Heyen is a freshman majoring in management and international business at the university.

The new coaches will join returning coaches to mentor more than 750 first-year business students.

The new strengths coaches are from eight states and represent 21 academic majors. Thirty-two attend the College of Business.
