Easter: Hope in trying times

It hits close to home.

Favorite Easter meal: My dad used to barbecue ham steaks, but I liked the mac salad my mom made the most. For candy, it's Cadbury cream eggs all the way!

What should we remember this Easter? Easter is all about new life and hope in Jesus. While we find ourselves in a strange time, we can find hope in Jesus because he rose from the grave.

What would you say to those struggling to cope this year? It's OK to grieve right now. We are all experiencing loss of some kind. Loss of jobs. Loss of freedom. Maybe even loss of a loved one. Loss of personal connections. It's OK to grieve that loss. However, you can grieve and still hope. This will end.

Our lives are different and that's OK. My prayer is that we will all value relationships a little more than we did before COVID-19.

Coastline Christian Fellowship

Favorite Bible verse: Psalms 16:11 - You (God) make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Favorite Easter tradition: Our family always has homemade biscuits and gravy for breakfast and a big dinner/late lunch in the early afternoon.

What should we remember this Easter? The true celebration of Easter is
