

This weekend and beyond

Church offers summer bazaar

A summer craft bazaar is set for 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, June 27, at Calvary Assembly of God, 1365 S. Main Ave.

Vendors interested in renting a table for $15 should contact Pam at 503-791-4961 for more information.

Ilwaco's farmers market to open

Saturday Market along the waterfront at the Port of Ilwaco, Wash., celebrates opening day from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, June 27.

Admission and parking are free and the market will run weekly through September.

Angora Club sets hike for Saturday

Angora Hiking Club is host for a 10-kilometer Volkswalk on Saturday, June 27, at Fort Stevens State Park.

The easy 6.2-mile hike will be led by Arline LaMear. No dogs are allowed and all hikers are required to wear face masks and ensure social distancing. An Oregon state parking sticker is required for all vehicles.

Hikers will meet at 9 a.m. in the Battery Russell parking lot. To sign up, contact LaMear at 503-338-6883 by Friday evening.

July 4 'parade' to get engines revved

A Clatsop County Freedom Ride is scheduled for July 4.

Since most – if not all – of the area's Independence Day events have been cancelled, organizers are calling people to decorate their own street-legal vehicles for a patriotic drive through the county.

To participate, show up before 11:30 a.m. at the Clatsop County Fairgrounds, 92937 Walluski Loop, Astoria.

The route will pass Astoria High School, cross the Youngs Bay Bridge, and head down Harbor Drive to Main Avenue in Warrenton.

The parade passes through downtown Warrenton shortly after noon, then heads south on Highway 101 toward Seaside. At the Seaside Outlet Mall, the parade turns left and will end in the parking lot at North Coast Family Fellowship about 2 p.m.

Freedom ride is sponsored by North Coast Oregon United.

Small farms mart a fresh affair

North Coast Food Web is sponsoring a Small Farm Market from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

every Thursday at 577 18th St., Astoria.

During the pop-up-style food stand, more than a dozen farmers from Clatsop, Columbia, Pacific, Wahkiakum, and Tillamook will bring eggs, fish, produce, jams and other local foods. Sales are by cash or check only. All proceeds go to the farmers.

For more information, call 503-468-0921.

Budgets: City, county, port approve budgets
