Upcoming events

A night for those suffering 'Shanghaied' withdrawals

An outdoor performance of "Shanghaied in Astoria" is scheduled for 8 to 10 p.m. Friday, Aug. 14.

The event includes some live performances and portions of prior years' performances will be showed on a movie screen outside the theater. The audio will be broadcast over a low-power FM transmitter so people can stay by or in their vehicles to hear the show.

The event is free, although the group hopes to raise funds through the sale of beer and wine, hot dogs, sausages and popcorn. Other donations also are welcome.

Restrooms will be open, but other parts of the playhouse will be closed. Attendees should bring camp chairs if they prefer to sit outside their vehicles.

The playhouse is at 129 W. Bond St., Astoria.

The event is weather permitting, so other dates have been reserved if it rains Aug. 14.

County conference explores disasters

A public videoconference on Clatsop County's plans for moving its public works facility and establishing emergency evacuation routes will be held Thursday, Aug. 13.

The Resiliency Project conference begins at 5:30 p.m. Details of the plan are on the county's website, co.clatsop.or.us. There's also a link there to register for the conference in advance.

County commissioners have prioritized the relocation of essential buildings and supplies outside the tsunami inundation zone as well as establishing ways to deliver services and evacuate residents if a disaster damages the region's roads and highways.

Flea market is this weekend

Svensen's monthly flea market is Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 15 and 16, at the Wickiup Grange, 92683 Svensen Market Road.

The market, held the third weekend of every month, includes jewelry, antiques, collectibles, plants, handmade items and more. Food will be available in the kitchen.

The market opens at 9 a.m. on Saturday and 10 a.m. on Sunday and closes at 4 p.m. both days.

For more information, call Marsha Ettro at 503-458-6652.

Group for those suffering loss

"Understanding Your Grief," a free support group for anyone experiencing the loss of someone, meets at 4:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 20.

Organizers say the group is a safe place to explore the challenges one faces on each person's unique path of grief.

Participants will learn about the grief process, identify coping strategies, and engage in discussions about a variety of topics related to healing.

Participants must wear a mask. The group meets in Conference Room A at Columbia Memorial Hospital.

For more information, call Jeanette Johnson at 503-338-6230.

Get answers to Census concerns

A 2020 Census event will be held from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 13, at the Sweet Shop, 567 Pacific Way, Gearhart.

The mobile meet-up is designed for anyone having trouble with questions on the census – or if their household didn't get census information.

This weekend

• Astoria Lions Charities will have its two-day garage sale from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Friday and Saturday at 518 McClure Ave., Astoria.

• Astoria Clowns will have their drive-through "clown bread" fundraiser from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday in the parking lot at Astoria High School. Half loaves are $25 for shrimp and $30 for crab. Cash only and customers must wear masks.
