The Tres Bro's food truck currently is the sole occupant of a proposed food pod next to City Hall. Arnie's Cafe is on the right.

Pod: City works on creative plan for food trucks

could threaten a proposed new rental agreement with Pizutti's Wood-Fired Pizza, which came before the agency Feb. 9.

"It's important that this thing gets finished and construction started in June or July," Mayor Henry Balensifer said when the Urban Renewal Agency discussed the pizza truck agreement.

While the city may have to address the availability of public restrooms too, he's not keen on a permanent structure.

"I don't think the city wants to be involved in building brick-and-mortar bathrooms there," Balensifer said. "Those things are maintenance nightmares."

Volunteers needed to be child advocates

Court Appointed Special Advocates seeks volunteers to serve as the voice for local children in the legal system.

CASA volunteers represent children who have been abused or neglected.

An informational meeting is set for 6 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 24, via Zoom.

For more information, visit the CASA website, clatsop-casa.org, or call Chelsea Harper at 503-338-6063.
