Local radio begins spring pledge drive

Coast Community Radio begins its monthlong spring pledge drive March 15.

Coast is the only local non-commercial broadcaster and operates three stations by relying on funds from the community.

KMUN-FM is at 91.9 and considered the flagship station after 38 years in Astoria.

Its format includes local news, public affairs and an eclectic mix of locally hosted music shows along with programs from National Public Radio and other independent sources.

To contribute, go to KMUN.org and click the "donate" button.
