

Junior Ranger event kicks off park week

National Park Week kicks off Saturday, April 17, and Lewis and Clark National Historical Park is focusing on youth events.

Junior Rangerpalooza 2021 runs through April 24.

To participate, children and teens can stop by the Fort Clatsop Visitor Center on Saturday and pick up a ranger book (there is a limited supply).

Each day will have a different activity. Saturday's activity is the National Historic Trail, followed by activities centering on sounds, the night, railroads, space and fishing.

There will be Junior Ranger displays throughout the park and a virtual "swearing in" of all junior rangers on the park's Facebook page on April 24.

The Lewis & Clark National Park Association Bookstore will carry special Junior Ranger items during the week as well.

Fort Clatsop is open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more information, call 503-861-2471.

Trillium: Project's design is approved

into the city's busiest intersection, Ensign Lane at Highway 101.

"I appreciate the fact that this is housing that is affordable. It's needed in this community," said Paul Mitchell, chairman of the Planning Commission. But he bristled at the realization the city would receive no property taxes from the nonprofit agency owning the property.

"I do have a problem when it comes to how do we continue to grow this community and our infrastructure, ... add more people to our schools, put a bigger burden on fire and police and city services," Mitchell said.

In the end, the project's site design was approved with the caveat that developers will continue to work with the city's community development department on equitable fees to help pay for traffic circulation improvements.
