WHS football loses to Heppner

By BRUCE DUSTIN

For The Columbia Press

The Warrenton Warrior football team suffered a 15-12 loss at Heppner last Saturday night.

A first-quarter score of 6-7 -- a one point deficit for Warrenton, was followed by a second quarter score of 12-7, with the Warriors in the lead.

Hordie Bodden Bodden had run the ball in for two touchdowns by the first half, a three-yard run in the first quarter and a five-yarder in the second.

The third quarter was empty of points but the fourth was a touchdown pass by Heppner, followed by a two-point conversion.

Hordie had 13 completions out of 34 passes for 181 yards in the game. He had 15 running attempts for 69 yards. Dylan Atwood had 67 yards in 12 attempts.

Ethan Caldwell received 5 passes for 81 yards, Joshua Earls had 4 receptions for 59 yards, Mikey Ulness had 2 for 21, Dawson Little had 2 receptions for 7 yards, and Dylan Atwood had a reception for 14 yards.

"The game didn't go as planned offensively," Hordie said. "We struggled the entire game and I made some bad reads, reads that could have sent some positive vibes to our side."

There was miscommunication defensively, too.

"We've worked hard, and we'll continue to work hard," he said. "But we just lacked some energy against Heppner."
