ashore near Netul Landing and participate in a ceremony honoring them.

Included in "Men of Many Capabilities" display are details of the expedition, including the Green Berets' food and means of transportation. Original objects donated by Capt. Lewis are on display, along with photos from the men's arrival at Fort Clatsop on Sept. 5, 1971.

A matching game for children also is part of the exhibit. Military veterans are encouraged to share their reflections on "teamwork" and "leadership" from their service years on comment cards at the exhibit.
