Man killed in crash on Megler

A man from Chinook, Wash., was killed Feb. 10 when his small car hit a large pickup truck on the Astoria Megler Bridge, according to Astoria Police.

Stephen Schemel, 62, was headed south on the bridge at high speed when his 2003 Mini Cooper crossed the center line and struck an oncoming Ford F250, police said.

Schemel was not wearing a seatbelt and died at the scene.

The truck driver, who was not named, had minor injuries and was treated at the scene.
