Liberty's March ticket offers plenty

From comedy to classical, the Liberty Theatre has a variety of entertainment options this month.

Saturday, March 5: Sybarite5, a string quartet, will bring the art of dance to center stage.

Friday, March 11: 45th Parallel Universe will bring a night of Stephen Sondheim tributes.

Saturday, March 12: North Coast Comedy Night with Tyler Boeh and Tory Ward.

Saturday, Mar. 19: Portland Cello Project, an alt-classical ensemble, pays tribute to Prince.

Wednesday, March 23: Willy Tea Taylor, a cowboy/country singer.

Saturday, March 26: Horse Feathers with Nick Delffs, a reimagined string ensemble of seasoned players.

For more information or tickets, visit libertyastoria.org. The box office is open from 2 to 5:30 p.m. Wednesday thru Saturday. The Liberty is at 1203 Commercial St., Astoria.

Taylor

WHS drama to perform Seussical

Warrenton High School drama students will perform "Seussical the Musical" at 7 p.m. Wednesday, March 9, and Friday and Saturday, March 11-12, in the high school gym.

The musical comedy by Lynn Ahrens and Stephen Flaherty is based on the many children's stories of Dr. Seuss, with most of the plot centered on "Horton Hears a Who."

Tickets are $8 and available at the door, which opens half an hour before the performance. The high school is at 1700 S. Main Ave.

Commune with nature in webinar

Feeling stressed and think a walk through the forest would help? There's a webinar for that.

"Finding Strength in Nature: Turning to the Columbia to Persevere in the Pandemic" is sponsored by Columbia Riverkeeper and will be held at noon Friday, March 11.

Presley

Licensed professional counselor Zoë Presley will lead the session.

The nonprofit group is calling the event a free "therapeutic forest bathing session" in which participants will learn how nature can help in managing the negative emotional effects of the pandemic.

To sign up, go to columbiariverkeeper.org.

Square dance class begins soon

Hayshaker Square & Round Dance Club is sponsoring a beginning square dance class from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Saturdays, beginning March 12.

The first class is free. Subsequent classes are $5.

Classes are held at Pacific Grange on Highway 101, just north of the Cullaby Lake exit in Warrenton. Singles and couples are welcome.

For more information, call 503-325-8109 or 503-325-2100 or visit the group's website, hayshakers.org.

Lots of fun this month at library

There's plenty to do besides reading this month at Warrenton Community Library.

Most notably, in-person children's storytime has returned. Young children are invited to Storytime with Courtney at 10:30 a.m. Wednesdays and every other Saturday beginning March 12.

Lego Club: The group, which received a donation of Lego supplies from the Northwest STEM Hub, meets at 4 p.m. March 15 and 29.

Craft Stash Swap: Those who enjoy arts and crafts are urged to bring their unused or unwanted supplies to the library for the upcoming swap, which will be held during library hours March 10, 11, and 12.

Participants are urged to donate yarn, fabric, paper, gently used markers, crayons, colored pencils, stickers, sequins, glitter, and more. It's a great way to reuse and recycle unused supplies while finding new ones to enjoy.

Book Bag Sale: The used book sale will be held in conjunction with the craft swap.

Library After Dark: Friends of Warrenton Community Library sponsors the monthly author talk, this one features Diana Kirk, whose work is featured in the anthology "Nasty!"

The talk starts at 4 p.m. March 12 and is followed by appetizers and beverages.

"I liked the personal approach I received from Ocean View and I'm relieved to think everything will be in order when the time comes."
