Dinner, auction benefit fisheries

A fundraiser to benefit Warrenton High School's Fisheries program is set for 4:30 p.m. Saturday, May 14, at the Clatsop County Fairgrounds.

Tickets are $50 and include a surf and turf dinner, live auction, and a talk by former Sen. Betsy Johnson, who is running for governor.

Tickets are available on the program's website, warhf.com, or at bpt.me/5414275.

The dinner is sponsored by Hampton Family Forests, Lewis & Clark Timberlands, Main Street Market, Pacific Seafoods, and Bornstein Seafoods.

Forum on Aging set in Seaside

A three-day forum for health professionals and policymakers on aging begins May 16 at the Seaside Civic and Convention Center.

The Forum on Aging in Rural Oregon allows participants to discuss their experiences, learn from one another and bring forth new ideas to move forward solutions that improve care and services for the elderly. The forum attempts to connect hospitals, coordinated care organizations, local public health departments, and private and rural health clinics with state and local aging-related stakeholders and community members.

Gov. Kate Brown declared May 16 as "Rural Senior Day." Seniors older than 65 represent 18 percent of all Oregonians and nearly 26 percent of rural residents, according to the state.

Rural seniors represent a diverse segment of Oregon's performances this month.

The beloved Rodgers and Hammerstein musical originally was produced for television in 1957 and adapted for Broadway in 2013.

Performances are at 6:30 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays, May 13, 14, 20, and 21, with a matinee performance at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, May 21.

Doors open at 6 p.m. and 1 p.m., respectively.

Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children, and available at the door by cash or check.

population, and face greater challenges to age in place in their communities than their urban or younger counterparts, according to the state.

Old-timey fun at Flavel House

The Flavel House Museum hosts a free "Old Fashioned Fun & Games" event on the lawn from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, May 14 and 15.

The event is sponsored by the Clatsop County Historical Society and includes badminton and croquet, a pie-eating contest, gunnysack races and games children played in years' past, such as hoop and stick, ball and cup, stilts, and rope-making.

Corn dogs and lemonade will be served while learning how Victorian-period children entertained themselves.

The event is cosponsored by Providence Seaside Hospital.

For more information, call 503-325-2203.

Tickets on sale for state fair

Oregon State Fair doesn't open until Aug. 26, but tickets already are on sale.

Among the entertainers lined up: Rascal Flatts lead singer Gary LeVox, Grammy Award-winning reggae artist Shaggy, Dove Award worship leaders Bethel Music, R&B girl group TLC, county superstar Scott McCreery, Hall of Famers The Beach Boys, and hip hop artist Nelly.

Fairgoers can attend one or move tickets for general admission, carnival rides, Fair-Lift, and the Columbia Bank Concert Series.

Reserved concert tickets start at $40 and include free fair admission. VIP tickets include special seats, free parking, a souvenir lanyard, priority entrance, special food service, and access to a VIP beverage bar.

The Oregon State Fair is a public/private entity owned by the people of Oregon. The fair began in 1861 in Oregon City. In 1862, the fair moved to the Oregon State Fairgrounds in Salem.
