Next week is Goonies week

The 37th anniversary of the release of the movie "The Goonies" is this month. Because much of it was filmed in Astoria, local events are planned all week long to celebrate.

• The Oregon Film Museum is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. They'll be selling the booklet "Become an OreGOONian," which includes 37 fun things to do. Photos with the Goonies Jeep will be from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Sunday, June 5.

• A costume contest and screening of "The Goonies" begins at 7 p.m. Friday, June 3, at the Liberty Theatre. The movie is free, but it's $10 to enter the costume contest. There are prizes for first, second and third place.

• Eighties Dance Party from 9 p.m. to midnight Friday, June 3, at Astoria Arts & Movement Center. Admission is $10 and all ages are welcome.

Tenor Guitars to gather June 3-4

The 12th annual Tenor Guitar Gathering is scheduled for June 3 and 4.

Tenor guitarists and other four-stringed instrument players will gather for two days of workshops, jam session, and concerts in the Charlene Larson Center for Performing Arts, 588 16th St., Astoria.

A crowd favorite is the annual sing-along trolley ride filled with tenor guitars, banjos, mandolins, and assorted instruments, which will occur Friday morning.

There will be two evening concerts featuring world class musicians. Concert tickets are $20 for adults and $10 for students and are available at tenorguitargathering.info.

Club holds plant sale in Seaside

The Sou'Wester Garden Club will hold its annual plant sale from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, May 28, at the Seaside Civic and Convention Center.

Kick it Out at Heart by Heart concert

A concert featuring the works of rock band Heart will be at 7 p.m. June 4 at the Liberty Theatre, 1203 Commercial St.

The band Heart by Heart features original Heart bassist Steve Fossen and drummer Michael Derosier, the driving forces behind classic hits such as "Barracuda," "Straight On," "Crazy On You," "Magic Man," "Even It Up," "Heartless," "Kick It Out," and more.

Heart's roots are in Seattle in 1967, with sisters Ann and Nancy Wilson joining in the mid-'70s. Heart was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2013.

Fossen and Derosier are back together now with

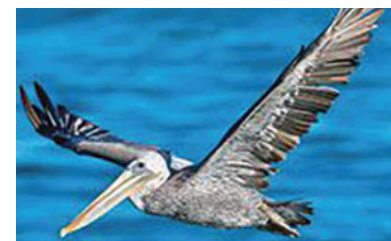

Heart by Heart, a band dedicated to performing Heart's classic hits. They are joined by vocalist Somar Macek, keyboardist Lizzy Daymont, and guitarist Chad Quist.

The concert is presented by Ohana Media.

Tickets are $28 in advance or $38 on the day of the show and can be purchased at libertyastoria.showare.com.

Sale proceeds support the nonprofit club's activities, which include financial and in-kind support for the Downtown Seaside Flower Basket Project and the Butterfield Cottage Garden and grounds maintenance.

Park offers birding with a ranger

Bird watchers and those who'd like to begin birding are invited to join a park ranger at 9 a.m. Wednesday, June 1, for "Let's Go Birding" at Fort Stevens State Park.

Some binoculars will be provided, but guests are urged to bring their own and prepare to see the area's migrating songbirds.

Participants should gather at Battery Russell – enter the park through the main day-use entrance.
