Football camps open to all ages

Warrenton High School's football program is offering youth summer football camps.

The no-contact camps focus on individual and team skills throughout the week. Campers will work with the entire WHS coaching staff as well as many WHS football players.

"The program is coming off one of the very best seasons in WHS history," Athletic Director Ian O'Brien said. "We want your kids to be a part of our culture."

- Grades K-4 Camp: 3:30 to 5 p.m. June 13-16

- Grades 5-8 Camp: 4 to 6 p.m. June 20-23

Both camps are $40 per participant and will be held at the WHS football field, 1700 S. Main Ave.

Scholarships are available if needed by contacting Coach

O'Brien at obrieni@warrentonk12.org.

Flag retirement set for June 14

Astoria Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution will hold a flag retirement at 1 p.m. Saturday, June 14, at Fort Stevens Historic Park.

Those who have American flags in need of retirement can drop them off ahead of time at City Lumber, 2142 Commercial St., Astoria, or contact any chapter member or Regent Sue Glen at 503-861-0574.

The flag retirement is open to the public.

State offers free park fishing, entry

Saturday, June 4, is State Parks Day and the Oregon Parks and Recreation Department is waiving day-use parking fees at Fort Stevens and at the 25 other state parks that charge them.

Fees for tent, RV and horse campsites also will be waived.

June 4-5 is also free fishing weekend. Visitors can fish at Fort Stevens without a fish or shellfish license.

Those who'd like to learn how to clam can meet up with a park ranger at 9 a.m. Saturday, June 4, at the Peter Iredale Shipwreck. Participants will learn more about razor clams and the best techniques for digging a limit.

State Parks Day has been a tradition since 1998. This year's celebration falls during the 100th anniversary of the state parks system.
