Band's specialty is Tex-Mex, Latin

Jarabe Mexicano will perform at 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 7, at the Liberty Theatre, 1203 Commercial St., Astoria.

The group, described as a "border band," is known for Mexican folk, rock and roll, Tex-Mex, Latin rock, and reggae-cumbia.

Vocals are in Spanish and English and performances include stringed folk instruments and percussion.

Tickets are $15 to $35 and available at libertyastoria.com.

showare.com.

Doors open at 6 p.m.

Golf Ball Drop to benefit children

The Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific will hold its annual Golf Ball Drop at 1 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 2, at Astoria Golf & Country Club, 33445 Sunset Beach Road, Warrenton.

Raffle tickets are $5 for a chance to win one of eight prizes. The 2,000 pre-numbered balls will be dropped on the course by a Columbia River Bar Pilot helicopter.

All proceeds benefit the organization's philanthropic programs, which served 1,145 children in Clatsop County last year.

Tickets are available from league members and at Holly McHone Jewelers, 1150 Commercial St., Astoria. Food and drinks also will be available for purchase at the event.

Great Columbia Crossing nearing

Registration is open for the Great Columbia Crossing, a 10-kilometer run/walk across the Astoria Megler Bridge.

It is the one chance each year when people can walk across the interstate bridge.

Registration is limited to 3,500 people. Sign up at old-oregon.com/the-great-columbia-crossing-10k.

Chamber quartet to work with students

The Delgani String Quartet, which specializes in chamber music in intimate concert settings, will perform locally Oct. 7, 8 and 9.

Musicians will visit public school classrooms, conduct a master class for string players and provide a student concert.

- Master class for students, free/donations only, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 8, at the Charlene Larsen Center for the Performing Arts, 588 16th St., Astoria.

- Master class students perform, 7 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 8, at the PAC.

- Delgani Quartet concert, 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 9, at the PAC. Admission $17.

Delgani's mission is to cultivate an appreciation for chamber music through performance, education and collaboration.
