

THE BANNER IN THE SKY.

With the blood-red glow of the sunset, Ere the shadows had darkened the East, On the war-worn field of Gettysburg...

Eagerly watched the Nation Through the terrible three days' fight, Eagerly waited the Nation For the triumph of the right...

Ere the pale white clouds of evening, And the sunset clouds of red, Had dispersed in the faded twilight...

On the ground a loyal soldier Wounded and dying lay, With the dying light his life blood Was ebbing fast away...

The white and red clouds of sunset Sailed in the darkening blue, While like distant watch-fires gleaming, The stars beamed dimly through...

Gone are the battling legions, Vanished the brotherhood, Peace sheds her gentle blessings On soldier and soldier...

Sally we scatter the flowers Above the heroic dead; Gladly we hail the tokens That the flowers of peace have shed...

—JAMES L. ONDERDONK, Portland, May 30, 1886.

GLUCOSE

So much has been said about glucose as a substance used to reduce sugars and molasses to lower quality that the public desires full information...

Glucose is not a newly discovered substance, for under the name of grape sugar it has been long known, for it is found in grapes, cherries and several other sweet fruits...

It was a long time from its discovery in 1792 until perfection was reached in about 1875, but it has abundance now makes up for all deficiencies and it is now found in all forms of sweetening in all habitations...

The following sweet missive was picked up on the street not many days ago. The writer failed to sign his name, relying, no doubt, on the intuitive perception with which the little god Cupid is endowed...

THE OLD-FASHIONED MAN.

"I was readin' in de paper yesterday" said Brother Gardner, as the meeting opened after the usual style, "I was readin' a lament bekas de ole-fashun'd man an' woman had died off an' would soon be no mo' on airth foreber...

"De ole-fashun'd man had two recipes for his fellow bein's. De fust was hard work, de nex was boueset tea. He had but two ideals in regard to boys. De fust was lots o' work an' a leetle school-in'...

"De ole-fashun'd man an' woman hav departed an' de world has not lost a cent by it. It was a good depart. Wicked as some folks claim de world to be, I feel dat I kin walk into de average crowd an' pick out mo' charity, humanity, religun, sympathy an' morality dan could be found in a 10-acre lot of ole-fashun' men."

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like proserpation, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the Pus, relieving the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address, The Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by W. F. Kremer, Grant's Pass.

Farm for Sale. Mr. D. S. McCollum, of Deer creek, writes us that he has a good comfortable home farm for sale at a bargain. That on account of business changes he must sell out. Farm contains 160; 80 acres of which is under fence; 35 acres in grain and timothy; orchard, house and barn; living water near the house and irrigating ditch for a garden.

There is also several lots of good land lying near me that can be had of the government suitable for comfortable homes. He writes "there is one piece of land in one half mile of me that would make one of the best peock orchards and small fruit orchards in this country. There is about 30 acres of it rich black loam." This land can be had at the government price. Mrs. Jane Ebyee also wishes to sell her place near Waldo. She offers a bargain at $1,000.

The Henderson place near Kerbyviq is also for sale at a bargain. Apply at 101 Cotier office for further particulars concerning these lands.
