Local and Personal.

Snow. The town is full of mumps. Eggs are 165c in Jacksonville. A. Black of Jump-off-Joe is sick. Read our new advertisements this week.

What has become of the brass band? Chas. Nickell of Jacksonville was in town Monday. Geo. Hudson of Gold Hill, died of consumption recently.

Major Buttkes and A. Murphy have our thanks for papers. Hon. Henry Rogers has our thanks for public documents.

There will be singing class at the M. E. church on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. J. A. Hanley of Jacksonville, is shipping fine beef cattle to O'Shea Bros. of Portland.

A post-office has been established at Lake creek, Chimney Rock precinct, with Jos. T. Delk as P. M. The wife of Hon. Henry Thomson, of this city, presented her husband on the 23d inst. with a fine boy.

It is said that H. Gasquet will have his wagon road through to a connection with the State line next Summer. The high water floated away R. D. Sanford's bridge, but it lodged and he will be able to haul it back to its old site.

W. J. Rogers has returned from Cal., where he has been for several months in the employ of the Postal Telegraph Co. Mrs. Perkins of Woodburn, sister of our popular teacher and citizen, Prof. H. L. Benson, is visiting in town this week.

The water is running against and around the court house building so much that it is liable to settle down and spoil the building. John L. is coming, not John L. Sullivan but the indefatigable and irrepresible Col. John L. Burns. Look out for the Esquimaux.

At the last term of the court the resignation of Jack Marshall, J. P. of Wolf Creek precinct, was accepted and G. C. Garfield appointed. Wm. M. Turner, who has been confined to his room for the last four or five months, seems to be gradually improving in the last few days. We hope he may soon recover.

We were shown a splendid prospect taken from a quartz ledge near Blackwell, owned by John Swinden. $2.50 was pounded out of about 25 pounds of rock. It is a large decomposed ledge, easily worked. A bonanza is supposed to be there. A friend of ours who spent a few days in Grants Pass last week, says the place is one of the most flourishing towns in Southern Oregon, having a larger area to support it than any other town south of Roseburg. Should her citizens carry out the project of bringing in a ditch from Rogue river, her future prosperity will only be a matter of time.

Frank Huffer, who has been employed by the R. R. committee of this place to make a preliminary survey of the Jacksonville railroad from this place to Medford, will commence work as soon as the weather will permit. He has received his instruments and organized his force for the work. The rain may delay Frank, but as we wait rain as well as a railroad, we say wait awhile and let it rain.

Indications of a foreign war are becoming more and more apparent. The photo of Hon. Mathew P. Deady, in Kane's Illustrated West, is as natural as life. The House decided to fully investigate the charge against the committee chairman. The Oregonian says the Postal Telegraph line will be ready for business within sixty days. His Honor Judge Shattuck reduced the judgement in the Kelly-Highfield case from $14,000 to $7,000. A full-fledged cyclone passed through a portion of Lane county on the 15th inst., tearing down trees four feet through. The steamer Bentley recently sunk at Albany has been raised and taken to Portland for further repairs. She is a fast boat. The daughter of J. Hash, of Newburg, Yamhill county, is supposed to have drowned herself in the Willamette river a few days ago. The Yaquina Mail comes to us this week with the column rules turned on account of the death of the father of its proprietor Lucius W. Phelps. At a depth of 1850 feet, W. S. Ladd discontinued boring on his well. The Oregonian some time ago suggested that he pull up the hole and sell it in sections for post-holes. Emma Friskhorn, a young girl 15 years old, shot and killed Peter Gunderson near Clifton, a few days ago. Gunderson attempted to drive the Friskhorn family from the house. The Oregonian tells of more rich quartz from Green Mountain mines and says that from 105 lbs of rock taken to Portland about $5000 was realized. One pound of ore yielded $192.66. The Oregonian thinks Secretary Whitney committed a great outrage in forcing John Roach into bankruptcy. Well, sometimes bigotry takes the place of common sense resulting in sad havoc somewhere.

Times are hard, but Smith Bros. have to import charcoal from the Willamette valley. Timber is plentiful, but then burning charcoal is dirty work. The S. P. D. & L. Co. wish to announce to the public that they are prepared to chop all kinds of grain at five cents per bushel. See Ad. elsewhere. Hon. Geo. W. Riddle says the southern portion of the Umpqua valley will soon be one solid prune orchard, as thousands of trees are being planted there. A. A. Wimer has his steam saw-mill on Applegate about ready to run, when he will get out a superior quality of lumber which he will deliver at reasonable figures. The Methodist Workers will give a Rosette sociable at M. E. church, with oyster supper at the parsonage on Wednesday evening, Feb. 2nd. Supper 25cts. A cordial invitation to all. A gentleman just from San Francisco informs us that there is no doubt about the O. & C. R. R. having been transferred to the C. & O. We hope it may be so, but the air is full of rumor. The steam tug Pelican and schooner Stranger were both totally wrecked at the mouth of Smith River on the 19th instant says the Record. Loss to R. D. Hume & Co. and others, $28,000. The Rev. F. H. Post, an Episcopalian clergyman, will hold services in Music Hall next Sunday (Jan. 30) morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30. All are cordially invited to attend. A. D. Helms, who recently bought out Gillam & Chapman, has removed his family to this place and is now one of our permanent citizens. He should receive a share of trade in his line. See his Ad. in another column. The second Quarterly meeting for Grants Pass Circuit will be held at Grants Pass on the 29th and 30th of Jan., services commencing at 2 o'clock p. m. on the 29th. Services also at 7 p. m. Usual services on Sabbath. Gray and Jordan Bros.' String Band will give a grand Calico and Neck-tie ball at Music Hall on Feb. 22d, 1887. Everybody invited. As this is the first ball given by the new band, they should be liberally patronized. [43-2] The remains of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Chapman, whose death we mentioned last week, were on the 19th inst. removed to Wilbur for interment. The fond parents have the sympathy of this community in their bereavement. The season is no more than ever favorable to the miners. The snow that falls on the high mountains remains, and the indications are that more is coming. The prospects for a late run in the spring are decidedly better than they were this time last year.

Salem Correspondence.

SALEM, Oregon, Jan. 23d, '87. ED. COURIER.—I will take a few minutes to write you about legislative work. Our town charter is being very strongly fought. Misrepresentation, personal appeals and, we think, other more weighty arguments are being used to defeat it. The opposition to it is headed by J. Bourne, Jr., Sol Abraham and Geo. Riddle. It has been decided, however, to beat it in the House as it is not thought possible to prevent its passage in the Senate. Telegrams and letters of urgent appeal are coming in thick and fast to Senators and Representatives, asking the defeat of the Grants Pass charter. All that the charter asks is that the people of Grants Pass may, if they shall so decide by a vote, have the benefits of a city government. Messrs. Bourne, Riddle and Abraham, however, are opposed to any such liberty on the part of our people and propose that "their will," rather than the will of our people shall control. It remains to be solved whether our legislature will force any people into such a position of unscrupulous and domineering tyranny. The people of Grants Pass propose that a majority of its citizens shall have the power and right to control its own affairs; while these non-residents propose that "their own sweet will shall be our law." They have a remonstrance here signed by thirty men, not one half of whom are citizens or property holders in our town. For my part, I propose that the will of our people shall be our rule. Bourne, Abrahams and Riddle are expected in person to-day, to try to defeat the bill. Mitchell is truly a representative of the people, and will not fail to do his duty in this and all matters in which they are interested. The reappointment of our legislative representation, is now the leading question of legislation. There is a determined purpose to pass a bill of this kind; and as our census, as well as that of Douglas and many other counties, was not fully taken, we will be sure to lose a Senator; and the only success to be hoped for if they pass an act of this kind, is to prevent our being annexed to Jackson county. It is indeed a gloomy prospect for our county, just as we are beginning to get on a solid financial, business and political foundation, to have the corner stone of our structure removed, and the entire edifice left to the mercy of the storms of vicious elements, over which we will then have no control. The personal abuse of the Oregonian toward every man in the legislature who is known as a friend of Senator Mitchell, has been most contemptible. It has been borne, however, with good grace and respectful demeanor by every member, until the same spirit of persecution and contemptible slander began to emanate from members of the legislature. Articles of the same nature as those appearing in the Oregonian began to appear in the East Oregonian, published in Pendleton and edited by Senator Wager. A distinct charge of corruption and combination to defeat important legislation, being made in its columns against Senator Siglin, brought that gentleman to his feet upon the floor; and in an earnest, eloquent and determined speech, he demanded an investigation of the charges and its author. "If," said he "these charges have any foundation in fact, I will vote for my own expulsion from this body. But if, on the other hand, they are found to be false and malicious, and to have been written by any man on this floor, I shall promptly demand that he be deprived of his seat here, and removed from the presence of gentlemen." An investigation of this matter is now progressing, and it is to be hoped that the result of this work will, at least, be the cause of bringing about a condition of better respect and courtesy of members toward each other. The growing disrespect and uncalled for slander of members of legislatures, is an evil that bids fair to cause our best men to shrink from the performance of public duty, and instead of purifying, vitiates our body politic. True facts of corruption should never be covered up; but indiscriminate abuse of public men by the newspapers, should be stopped by some means. And when these unjust accusations and malicious abuses are made, the law should compel the paper making them to prove the facts of its conclusions or sustain heavy damages. This is one of the growing evils of the present age, and is doing us much more harm than we can conceive. The following senators have been elected: Dawes, of Massachusetts; M. S. Quay, of Pennsylvania; George Gray, of New Hampshire; Francis B. Stockbridge, of Michigan; Geo. Hearst, of California; Gen. Hawley, of Connecticut; Senator Cockrell of Missouri; Charles B. Farrwell, of Illinois; Eugene Hale, of Maine, and C. K. Davis, of Minnesota. A democratic gain of one. Hiscock will probably be elected from New York. The Indiana troubles seem to have been somewhat settled, and Turpie, democrat, received 75 votes; Harrison, republican, 71, and Allen 4. The second ballot showed no change, and the convention adjourned. Turpie needs one vote. In Nebraska the result is doubtful. Van Wyeck leads, yet there is opposition enough to defeat him.

School Laws.

While our legislature is deeply engrossed with bills for the improvement and development of our various agricultural, commercial and mining interests, while they are agitating the questions of canals, fish ladders, etc., would it not be well for them to inspect carefully the school laws of our state, and to inquire into the possibility of improving in that direction, to the benefit of every boy and girl in the State. Having felt a deep interest in the progress of our school system, believing as we do, that "the public national prosperity" is not a pious platitude, but a live, wholesome, truth. We have studied from time to time the legislation upon this subject, and we find what we consider weak points in the plan. If our representatives really desire to advance educational interests, and place Oregon in the front rank in this respect, as it ought to be, we think that they should make an effort to improve the law in the following respects, at least: County and district institutes are prescribed by the law, but short sighted school officers may prevent the attendance of the teacher. This attendance should be made imperative and the teacher's salary ought to continue during such attendance. These associations are the best safeguards against fossilized instructors. Again, we think that the law can and ought to be amended in regard to examinations and certificates. The system of private examinations for license to teach is so obviously bad, that almost every State in the Union has abandoned it. There ought to be public examinations at stated intervals, say quarterly. The board of examiners should receive compensation from the county, and the issuance of a license should in no way be connected with any financial consideration. Again, we think there should be three grades of certificates, and the first grade ought to be of such a character as to furnish indisputable evidence of scholarship and skill. If these points could all be remedied, the school work in Oregon would soon make a very decided forward step, in the way of excellent results.

From our Regular Correspondent. WASHINGTON LETTER. WASHINGTON, Jan. 15, '87. Another important step has been taken in the Permanent Exposition movement. The Senatorial committee on this subject have reported in favor of commemorating the great Constitutional Centennial in 1889, and very properly Washington has been selected as the place for holding it. The committee has not yet reported upon the manner of the proposed celebration, or in regard to the quadri-centennial of 1892, but the action now taken furnishes sufficient assurance that the entire programme, as contemplated by the Board of Promotion and including its exposition features will receive the endorsement of Congress. The house of Representatives was much stirred up over the Anti-Polygamy bill. When it came up for consideration on Wednesday, the delegate from Utah, Mr. Caine, took the floor in a long speech which commanded the closest attention. He said the measure was undemocratic, un-American, and wantonly destructive of human rights; that it set at naught the immutable principles upon which the common rights of man were founded, and turned the Mormon and their church over to insatiable spoilers. Delegate Caine attracted the whole House around him and excited the interest of the galleries during his spirited defence of the Salt Lake hierarchy. There was a good deal of difference of opinion among Members touching the constitutionality of some features of the Mormon bill. It proposes to extinguish what is known as the Mormon Church, and scatter or divide its property among those who do not believe in its tenets or practices. Some Members argued that the Constitution, which prohibits the establishment of any church or form of religion, was to be invoked to disestablish and extirpate an objectionable creed, and that this was striking rather too deeply at the roots of religious freedom. Others argued that it was useless to call this bill an assault upon a religion. It was an assault upon a band of men organized for the purpose of exclusively controlling a Territory which belonged to the people of the United States, and which should be free and open to all. Odd and reliable Medicines are the best to depend upon. Acker's Blood Elixir has been prescribed for years for all impurities of the Blood. In every form of Scrofulous, Syphilitic or Mercurial diseases, it is invaluable. For Rheumatism, has no equal. For sale by W. F. Kremer. Notice For Publication. U. S. LAND OFFICE, BAKER, Ore., Jan. 15, 1887. Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Clerk of the County Court of Josephine county, Or., at Grants Pass, on Wednesday, March 23, 1887, viz: George K. Green, Pre-emption D 8 No. 4674, for the lot 7, and s. w. 1/4 of s. 14, and s. w. 1/4 of s. w. 1/4 of Sec. 20, T. 36, S. R. 5 W. W. M.
