Lying About Oregon.

The following is a good illustration of the way San Francisco people lie about Oregon: "A gentleman just returned from San Francisco says the immigration agents there never fail to give Oregon a 'black eye' when opportunity offers.

War is still talked of but it looks as if it was away off.

Rev. Horace Lyman is lying very sick at his home in Forest Grove.

Sheriff Minto of Salem recently knocked ambler all out of a jail-bird bully. He laid him out three times with his fist.

E. W. James of Albina, who accidentally shot and killed Mrs. Julia Newton on Feb. 10, has been found guilty of manslaughter.

The Richmond hotel and St. James Hall were burned in Buffalo on the 18th. About thirty people lost their lives. Loss, $400,000.

R. A. McFarland, father of Rev. McFarland and J. B. and L. McFarland, and also an octogenarian, died on his farm in Linn county recently.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad is supposed to have been sold to the Atchison Topeka and Santa Fe road. Huntington denies any connection with the trade.

Frank King, while fording Yreka creek recently with a yreka horse wagon load of goods, came very near losing his life and team. After twenty minutes hard struggling the horses and wagon were saved. Damage to load, about $40.

The outlook for the hopgrowers of the Pacific coast this season seems to be fully as encouraging as last year. Every one is familiar with the almost total loss of the hop crop in Central New York in '86 owing to the ravages of lice, but it was supposed that the coming season would see a recovery from the depression, as it was thought hardly probable that the scourge would again cause damage. But it seems that not only did the insects kill the foliage of the hop vines, but in many cases the roots of the plants themselves were ruined and it will be necessary in the majority of cases to replant the yards. Should this be generally done, even then the crop would be a light one this season. But it is reported that the hop-growers are so discouraged that while they plow up their ruined yards, they will not again venture in the same direction, but will turn their attention to grain, potatoes, and other ordinary farm crops. In any event the hop product of Central New York will cut a very small figure in the market this season, and for that reason hop-growers in Oregon should be very chary in making contracts at prices very much less than were obtained last year.—[Telephone.]

A lamp standing for some time in a cold room and then filled full of coal oil, will run over through the expansion of oil when taken to where it is warm. Then the lamp may be blamed for leaking. To obviate this, never fill the lamp quite full.—[N. Y. Times.]

Capt. Erickson, the inventor, is 83 years old, but is still vigorous enough to work twelve hours a day. He is so devoted to the tasks he has set himself that he receives no visitors at all.

ASTONISHING SUCCESS.

No person can use it without immediate relief.
