Our City Marshall takes to his new duties like a duck to water. "He was the feller yit."

The columns of the COURIER are always open to proper discussion of any question of importance.

Front and Seventh streets are being plowed, preparatory to the proper surface drainage and better streets.

Money to loan on good security. Notes and Co. orders bought. Enquire at S. U. Mitchell's law office.

Our old friend Campbell Hendrix is about to leave Waldo, we regret to say. He will return to the Willamette valley.

Norman P. Colman, Commissioner of Agriculture, by request of Hon. J. H. Mitchell has sent us a package of seeds.

W. N. Campbell is again employed in the store of J. Wimer & Son at Waldo. Newt is a good, honest, trustworthy man.

We call attention to our letter in another column from Johnathan Bourne, which is of much importance to the mining fraternity.

We have the finest grass seen here in many years and prospects for large crops of everything, including fruit, were never better.

Arch-Bishop Gross of Oregon and Father Blanchet will be at Waldo on May 15th, and will hold high mass at Wimer's hall on that day.

Rev. Mr. Burchett, Baptist missionary for Oregon, will preach at the M. E. church in this place next Sunday. Rev. Geo. W. Black will also be present.

Mrs. Dan Sheehan came to town from Williams creek Wednesday with 60 dozen eggs which she sold at 10c a dozen, which is very low for this country.

We were pleased to make the acquaintance a few days ago of Mr. Simpkins Sr. and his estimable wife, at their home near Woodville, Jackson county.

W. J. Stanley of Woodville is prospecting some quartz ledges in that vicinity, with flattering results. He will soon send some of the rock below for a test.

Wm. Nevraeth is now turning out at the brewery the best beer we ever tasted in Southern Oregon. The fine artesian water may have something to do with it.

E. S. Smith had the misfortune to get thrown from the wagon a few days ago, while returning from Galice creek, injuring his leg and almost laying him up.

Prof. H. L. Benson, Principal of our school, had an offer of $2000 per annum for teaching in a high school in California, which was duly declined by that gentleman.

Col. Geo. L. Curry of Ashland, says that about thirty years ago, while in the Umpqua valley, he lay in his blankets which were covered with ice, and ate ripe strawberries.

Geo. Livingstone and his parents, also J. A. Peckham and family, all of Waldo, went north on the train Monday night; the former to East Portland and the latter to Yamhill county.

NOTICE.—Having concluded to discontinue business at this place, all knowing themselves indebted to me are requested to come forward and settle up by June 1st, 1887.

4-22tf] GEO. W. RIDDLE.

The teacher's institute at Albany last week was well attended, many able educators being present, headed, of course, by State Superintendent McGrooy.

A. G. Moon, of the firm of Moon & Stacy of Ashland, brought down last week a pure blood Hereford bull calf aged 8 months, which that firm sold to Jesse Mash of this place for $500. The calf weighed 607 pounds. He bears the ear mark of T. H. Miller, Beecher, Illinois, is fully registered, bearing on his horn pedigree mark 53.

Mrs. Lucy Allen called at the office Wednesday, from whom we learn that Daniel Allen, who has lived in her family for 20 years and who is blind, refuses to be placed on the county poor farm. He has been with them so long that it seems hard to either change him or require Mrs. Allen to keep him free, but such is life.

Race Simpkins, proprietor of the Simpkins hotel on corner of 5th and Main Sts., was on last Monday morning notified by his daughter that a purse of money, drafts, etc., was lying in the bed in room No. 10 of the house. Mr. Simpkins repaired to the room and took charge of the find, which amounted to several hundreds of dollars.

The fire at Ashland occurred at about midnight, says the Tidings, and was first discovered by Mrs. H. S. Emery. The planing mill, sash and door factory of Youle & Gilroy destroyed, was at the railroad crossing of Helman street. Loss $4000, insurance $1500. The proprietors will rebuild immediately.

Senator Miller and family returned to this place late last week. Mrs. Miller spent the last half of the winter in Portland, returning to Springfield, Lane county a short time ago to visit with relatives and friends, thence out here to their beautiful home on Rogue river; Mr. Miller also arriving from an extended trip East about the same time.

John M. McVay of Hurst, Montana, who for the past few weeks has been on Williams creek in this county called Friday and subscribed for the COURIER. The gentleman was on his way home, having been with his aged mother Mrs. Mavity, who has been very sick. He informs us she was much better when he left, which her friends will be glad to learn.

A class of girls composed of Clara Bacher, Minnie Hutch, Onie Vannoy and Katie Campbell, sang a duet and chorus at the close of the concert at the M. E. church last Sunday evening, which was so well rendered that we consider them worthy of special mention in these columns. These little girls are in this country; in fact the stage of the finest theater knows no sweeter voices.

We are informed that whilst Jerry Numan was in San Francisco recently he secured $2400 subscriptions to the Jacksonville branch of the railroad. We also learn that Jackson county will give as many dollars toward turnpike roads to Medford and Central Point as can be raised by subscription for the same purpose. Should the branch road not succeed the turnpike would, if built, doubtless prove to be a good friend to that beautiful little city. $5000 is estimated sufficient to build the pike.

We regret that there is a division of opinion between Prof. John H. Robinson of the Bureka High School and some of his late pupils. An article elsewhere in this issue will explain itself. The Professor deserves much praise for his energy and pluck in building up a fine school against all kinds of obstacles, and as it has been the policy of the COURIER to sustain all kinds of investment of capital, we are anxious to see this school succeed even beyond the expectations of its principal and hope the next school will be a large one.

From the Ashland Tidings: It is understood there will be seven trains a week between Portland and Ashland the coming summer.

Circuit court will reopen at Jacksonville on the 27th, when a number of decisions will be pronounced by Judge Webster.

Thrilling drama, "Lost in London," at Granite Hall, Ashland, Wednesday evening, April 27th. It is being prepared with care and will be a choice entertainment.

Geo. Stephenson and Mr. Allen bought 100 head of horses last week for the C. & O. R. R. and paid out for the same about $11,000, which will help out the farmers of this valley considerably.

Mr. L. Stacey returned home last Friday from Siskiyou county, Cal., where he has been selling a large number of Hereford cattle brought out from Illinois. He has brought eight head of the youngest ones to Ashland.

Rumors were afloat on our streets yesterday morning that a day had been fixed for passenger trains seven times a week over the O. & C. R. R. and that meals would be taken at Medford. Day operator Wilcox of this place, informs us there is nothing authentic to justify the report. A little enterprise on the part of our citizens just now, might secure the "hash foundry" at this place. If we can't get our eyes open any other way let's open them with our fingers.

WANTED.—A good milk cow. Enquire at this office. [52tf]

QUEENSTOWN, April 13.—The greatest rush of emigrants to the United States ever known is now taking place. Railroads are running extra trains. Thirteen hundred emigrants yesterday for America.
