

THE COURIER.

Official Paper of Josephine County, Oregon.

FRIDAY, JULY 29, 1887.

STATE AND COUNTY OFFICIALS

GOVERNOR: STEPHEN PENROSE. SECRETARY: G. W. WARR. TREASURER: J. B. MILLER. REPRESENTATIVE: U. MITCHELL. Supt. Pub. Instruction: J. B. McELROY. Circuit Judge: HOS. L. R. WEBSTER. District Attorney: W. M. COLBY.

COUNTY OFFICIALS

County Judge: Volney Colby. Commissioners: J. M. Payne, Simon Messenger, C. K. Chanson, G. W. Howard, G. Patterson, E. F. Hathaway. School Superintendent: Circuit Court-Convenes on the First Monday in January, April, July and September.

Liver Pills.

Use Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills for Sallow Complexion, Pimples on the Face and Biliousness. Never sickens or gripes. Only one for a dose. Sample free at W. F. Kremer's.

IMPOTENCY in man or woman cured by Gilmore's Aromatic Wine.

FOR DYSPEPSIA and liver complaint, you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer. It never fails to cure. For sale at Kremer's.

Babies

Infants fretful, peevish, cross, or troubled with Windy Colic, Teething Pains, or Stomach Disorders, can be relieved at once by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine, hence is safe. Price 25 cents. Sold by W. F. Kremer.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY

A positive cure for catarrh, diphtheria, and canker mouth. For sale at Kremer's drug store.

WILLIS L. CULVER of Pavilion, N. Y.

says that Gilmore's Magnetic Elixir cured him of a long standing Throat and Lung trouble. Kremer sells it.

Just What They All Say.

Hon. D. D. Haynie of Salem, Ill. says he uses Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup in his family with the most satisfactory results. It cures all cases of Coughs, Colds and Whooping Cough, and recommends it in particular for the little ones. Sample bottle 5 cents at W. F. Kremer's.

REV. H. B. WELLS of Pavilion, N. Y.

says Gilmore's Aromatic Wine: "I believe it to be a most desirable remedy to be placed in every family." For sale at Kremer's drug store.

THE REV. GEO. H. THAYER of Bourlon Ind., says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to Shiloh's consumption cure." For sale at Kremer's drug store.

Dow's

trifles with any Throat or Lung Disease. If you have a Cough or Cold, or the children are threatened with Croup or Whooping Cough, use Acker's English Remedy and prevent further trouble. It is a positive cure, and we guarantee it. Price 10 and 50c at W. F. Kremer.

LADIES, is the old health worth preserving?

If you think so, use Gilmore's Aromatic Wine. Kremer keeps it.

ARE YOU MADE miserable by Indigestion, constipation, dizziness, loss of appetite, yellow skin, Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure.

For sale at Kremer's drug store.

WHY WILL YOU cough when Shiloh's cure will give immediate relief.

Price 10 and 50c. For sale at Kremer's drug store.

Old and reliable Medicines are the best to depend upon.

Acker's Blood Purifier has been prescribed for years for all impurities of the Blood. In every form of Scrofulous, Syphilitic or Mercurial diseases, it is invaluable. For Rheumatism, has no equal. Kremer has it for sale.

A NASAL INJECTOR

free with each bottle of Shiloh's catarrh remedy. Price 50 cents. At Kremer's.

REV. E. J. WHITNEY of Clarkston, N. Y.

says Gilmore's Aromatic Wine for female weakness, stands without a rival. Kremer has it for sale.

Cure For Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, legs and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address: The Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by W. F. Kremer, Grant's Pass.

"HACKMETACK"

a lasting and fragrant perfume. Price 25 and 50 cents. For sale at Kremer's drug store.

WE WARRANT Gilmore's Magnetic Elixir to relieve the Asthma in one minute. Kremer has it for sale.

Convenient

pleasant, and results, are Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets, recommended by physicians and endorsed by all who have used them. The best remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency and Constipation. Guaranteed, and sold at 25c. by W. F. Kremer.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY

will immediately relieve croup, whooping cough, and bronchitis. For sale at Kremer's.

At Night

Acker's Baby Soother at hand. It is the only safe medicine yet made that will remove all infantile disorders. It contains no Opium or Morphine, but gives the child natural ease from pain. Price 25 cents. Sold by W. F. Kremer.

Local and Personal.

Mr. Len. Gibson is on Jump-off Joe Creek.

Mr. W. Hunter returned Wednesday from the Siskiyou tunnel.

Buttles and Moss have finished their tunnel contract on St. Peters mine.

Captain McGregor of Portland is in town and is looking for some good placer mines.

Miss Bert. Wall, of Roseburg, is visiting friends and relatives at this place and vicinity.

WANTED.—Black, Brown, and Grizzly bear. Call on or address, Len. Jennings, Grants Pass, Or.

The first Monday in each month will be collection day for this office. All concerned please take notice.

Miss Bowen, who has been visiting at Mrs. C. H. Haskell's, has returned to her home in San Francisco.

Dr. Robinson of Crescent City, has accepted a position in the Napa Asylum, California, at $2,500 per annum.

City Marshal, Colby has rented the Chapman house, and is preparing to move his family there at an early date.

Mrs. Chausse has removed from Jerusalem and has taken up her abode in her new residence in Jerico or rather on eighth street.

Money to loan on good security. Notes and Co. orders bought. Enquire at S. U. Mitchell's law office. [50-tf.]

The Supervisors along the road from this place to Waldo, deserve praise for the good condition of the same. Much good work has been done.

Quite a number of the citizens of Illinois and Snicker creek valleys have been in town this week on business connected with next week's circuit court.

Mr. F. Nickerson opened out on Monday last with a full stock of general groceries, canned goods etc. His stand, corner Front and Fifth, is a good one and his stock is all new and fresh. See advt.

Mr. Meissner, while running a mower on Mr. Hughes' place near Waldo, accidentally ran the cycle against a horse cutting it, from which, it afterward died. The horse belonged to Mr. Hughes.

Joe Blackburn, held on the charge of lynching Kelly, the wife murderer, having proved an alibi before Justice Pink, of Salem, has been discharged. The result was received with roars of applause by the waiting crowds.

G. Davis returns thanks to the people of Grants Pass and vicinity for their patronage for the last year. He will from this date make Boots and Shoes cheaper than you can get them in the stores. Repairs neat and cheap. [4-29-tf.]

The temperance lecture given by Prof. Brownson, on Wednesday evening of last week, was well attended and proved a most interesting discourse. The scientific aspect of the question was thoroughly dealt with and in a manner that must have been convincing to the audience.

NOTICE.—Having concluded to discontinue business at this place, all knowing themselves indebted to me are requested to come forward and settle up by June 1st, 1887. [4-22-tf.] GEO. W. RIDGLE.

Among the finest oats we have ever seen, was a bundle brought in from Applegate by Mr. Willis York. The grain stands over seven and a half feet high and the heads are from twelve to fifteen inches long and well filled with plump berries. An unusual thing when the growth of stalk is so prolific.

On Friday evening a stranger in town was found on the street by the city marshal in a semi comatose condition and was accommodated with lodgings in the city cooler. The treatment was so beneficial that it was decided to make no case of the matter and the man was allowed to depart with a caution against the use of the Grants Pass benzine.

It would seem from present indications that many of our citizens are unaware of the regulations governing the running at large of hogs and the objectionable porcine may be seen at any part of the day contentedly meandering through the highways and byways of the city. Offending parties are warned that the marshal is in duty bound to exercise his functions and will be obliged to corral straying grunners in the city pound.

C. W. Cornelius writes us from Gold Hill as follows: "Work is progressing very satisfactorily on the Dardanelles ledge. A recent tunnel shows a large body of ore which prospects very well. The ledge is about 1 feet in width and shows fine gold to the naked eye. The east and west ledge is also showing some very rich deposits."

Correction

Ed. Courier.—Allow me to correct a mistake which occurred in my article on the G. A. B. in your issue of the 21st. Through some misapprehension, I used the name of the Jacksonville "Sentinel" instead of the "Democratic Times." I am entirely responsible for the mistake and take pleasure in rectifying it through the columns of your paper. J. P. COLERMAN.

Call at the Courier Job Office for Superior Job Work.

J. T. E. C. and H. D. Chausse, of this place, took the train for Ashland, Wednesday, to work on the railroad.

Subscribers are requested to pay up their back subscriptions and start fair with the new editor. Now is the time to do it.

Report reaches this office just as we are ready to go to press that a land slide has filled the Siskiyou tunnel with dirt and rock. Nine sets of timbers are supposed to be down. This will undoubtedly delay the time of connecting the two roads.

We refer our readers to the advt of the Eureka high school, near Wilderville. This school is under the management of Prof. Robinson, a well-known educator, who has excellent result to point to, in connection with past teaching.

Mr. J. C. Whipp, the enterprising proprietor of the Jacksonville Marble Works, called at our office on Monday last. He reports his business as flourishing, and appearances bear him out, for he drives the handsome pair of sorrels to be found in three counties.

C. W. Ayers, architect and builder, from Ashland, was in town on Wednesday last, and expressed himself as pleased with the prospects of our little city. If he should call again in twelve months he would severely know Grants Pass so great would be the improvement.

Mr. Wm. M. Griffin brought into our office the other day some fine specimens of magnetic iron ore from a ledge recently discovered by him on a tributary of Shan creek, about eleven miles west of this place. The ore carries a fair percentage of gold, several tests giving ten dollars to the ton.

We have discovered that there are people in Grants Pass who do not take the COURIER. We would like these gentlemen to call around at an early date and place their names in our subscription books. Every citizen in the place should take at least one copy of their local paper. If parties will kindly call at the office and subscribe it will save the editor much valuable time.

For Parlor Suits, Bedroom Suits, and Wall-paper, go to A. J. Sedge's Furniture Store, opposite the Round house. [6-24-1m.]

The Sugar Pine Door and Lumber Co. are rushing things at their factory in this town. Several large orders have recently been received from Idaho, where their manufactures have met with great favor and are making for themselves an ever-increasing market. To fill pressing orders it has been found necessary to work overtime.

DENTISTRY.—Will Jackson will be here next Monday, and will remain one week. Every operation pertaining to the jaw, skillfully performed. Vitalized Air used to extract teeth without pain, and a new set put in the next day. Satisfaction guaranteed, and all work warranted. [6-24-1m.]

WILL JACKSON, Dentist.

A party of miners and sportsmen consisting of Maj. Buttles and family, Jas. Moss and family, Miss Elva Wheeler, and Mr. Scoopendyke, report a delightful time for several days on the picturesque and romantic banks of Grave Creek, where they lured with skillful art the speckled beauties from the murmuring brook and feasted upon juicy steaks from the antlered monarchs of the forest.

H. B. Miller & Co., have on hand a large lot of extras for D. M. Osborne & Co.'s machines, which will sell for less than cost. [6-24-4t.]

A horse race took place on Wednesday afternoon between Hutch's racer "Baldie" and a grey mare owned by W. Riddle, of Douglas county. The mare won handsily, improving a good start to the finish. A second race was run between Baldie and a saddle horse owned by the Douglas county boys. Baldie was started without a rider and flew the track, thus letting his owner in for another twenty dollars.

Agents wanted for the sale of Fruit Trees, Small Fruits, Grape Vines, etc. For terms, address California Nursery Co., Niles, Alameda Co., Cal.

Mr. S. B. Whittle, foreman of the Postal Telegraph repair brigade has a handy man in the person of Mr. A. Anderson. He is an expert thrower, and when a stream is to be measured he simply picks two stakes, throws one across the river and the other, with the same force, upon level ground. By measuring the throw on the ground he has the river's breadth, and is said to seldom miss a very close approximation. The Rogue river, at Rock Point, where the company is putting instruments in Dr. Golvig's house, was found by this means to be 90 yards.

Ed. Courier.—Allow me to correct a mistake which occurred in my article on the G. A. B. in your issue of the 21st. Through some misapprehension, I used the name of the Jacksonville "Sentinel" instead of the "Democratic Times." I am entirely responsible for the mistake and take pleasure in rectifying it through the columns of your paper. J. P. COLERMAN.

Call at the Courier Job Office for Superior Job Work.

We wish it distinctly understood that we will admit no more communications of the nature of those following. We have been obliged to refuse two letters on account of their gross personal references, and as we are fighting nobody's private quarrels, we have decided the matter must stop right here. We have already been obliged to curtail our news space which is of general interest for the benefit of the few who are personally concerned. We further rule that any communication containing any scandal, or language that can be construed into such, must appear as an advertisement and over the full signature of the writer. The community of Grants Pass is not so large that we can afford to quarrel with a single member, and it is our policy not to do so. Ep.

(Advertisement.)

And now cometh the Lord High Executioner, Officers and assessors attending. I have been told there were four or six; I am not sure which—however, the majority is greater than it was in the spring, it being only three then. This mountain of intellect hath labored and brought forth a mouse. (I have not learned the full particulars of this specimen of natural history) and I understand it wears the collar with becoming grace and submission. As I have some zoological curiosities of my own to exhibit, I can not devote too much time to this monstrosity, but refer you to another column of this paper under the heading of—

(Advertisement.)

I would not if I could detract any good (if any there be) from Pilgrim's advertisement in your last issue, yet feel constrained, if for no other purpose, to reply to it in so far as regards his comments on the ladies who so kindly took part in the drama. It may be they are in the "sear and yellow leaf" as he is pleased to call them, but for purity of life, care of home and its comforts for those they love—who I ask can point the finger of scorn and cry shame?

"Pilgrim," wander again—go east and cross the broad Atlantic—visit the cities of Europe, and when you come again to this "Switzerland of Oregon" we trust you will find the same ladies (if God spares their lives) ready and willing to take part in any and all things that are calculated to promote the welfare and happiness of any or all who may have a home among us or who may wish to hold sweet converse in harmony with another and for intellectual culture.

The Institute, however—the name came, was a grand and noble success, even if some craniums held but little brains. God knows if you do not that they would be proud and pleased to have more, yet are thankful, no doubt, for the little you are pleased to bestow upon them. I hope and trust it may be my good fortune to witness just such another meeting in our beautiful and prosperous city, and when it does occur I sincerely trust that the ladies "in the sear and yellow leaf" may be on hand to lend their aid and knowledge in the art divine as well as in the art dramatic, to the young ladies of Grants Pass. You may rest assured, dear Pilgrim, that both will be given with as much pleasure as their time and money for the late entertainment, and if agreeable to all parties they would no doubt let Pilgrim shine behind the curtain. A.

(Advertisement No. 2.)

To PILGRIM:—I think the writer "Pilgrim" acted unwisely and ill becoming a gentleman when, in last week's issue of this organ, he made a vile attack, and attempted to cast base imputations upon the honor and respectability of the ladies referred to in his article. It was an uncalculated, unwarranted and unjust action, as he well knows; and therefore, it is not a part of my woman's nature to remain silent and not resent it. I would now like to see him come forward and explain reasons for so doing, or, state on what grounds he is justified. He delights in clamoring loudly of having been a soldier, faced whole armies and so on. No doubt of it as we know it calls into requisition "heroes" to perform such noble deeds. Few men, much less gentlemen, would wish to bring into notoriety—into conspicuous notice—ladies of good standing who were acting under the impulse of honest intent and for the public good as well. This is the "card of thanks" extended us. We care not for "Pilgrim's" compliments, or even appreciation. We simply demand justice and decency. We will not state our line of action for the future, but if "Pilgrim" cannot appreciate or even tolerate the "Old Girls" he is at liberty to organize his young corps and conduct it to his own liking—the "Old Girls" lend a willing assent. If you wish to inquire further into our department &c., I trust you will interview the young gentlemen of our Club whom you so kindly mention, and to whom I most respectfully refer your lordship. We regard them as gentlemen, they having co-operated with us as becoming such; therefore feel no hesitancy in commending you to them. Now, Mr. Dictator, it is unnecessary to mention your name, we will only say in conclusion: We as a society in Grants Pass, dwell together amicably and peacefully until you cast your lot among us. It seems to be your sole desire to create animosity—a sensation of enmity with the real meat in the nut. Having fractured the outer shell or fabric, I shall proceed to discuss the kernel.

Drive Apollo, Adonnis, Soerates and many other young men from you, out in that mad sea of life, as it were, where the world knows no mutual sensibility with man; where amid the uncertain and devious paths of "Lovers' Lane," they pass their lives in a mad and unprofitable way.

Now, I must speak right here a few words for the ladies. In a former article, I gave them a generalality, bunched them like radishes or onions, as it were. It is my intention to deal with them separately this time. Let us interview the mother: She acted her part with becoming grace. One would suppose that she always had a large family, were it not for her youthful appearance. She kept her lines and part well in mind, and gave the prompter no trouble; and were it not for the drunken husband and father cribbing part of the villain's lines, all would have been well.

And now the daughter engages my attention. It could not be possible for a daughter to act and look more coy and kittenish. One would have supposed she was the mother's daughter in real life. Again, how pleased she was when Adonnis returned from China with the hoodie. At this stage of the drama, I went out and wept with joy in the arms of my friend Judson. To think that we had so much talent bottled up in these Rogue River Mountains, was more than I could stand without a few tears. About this time a lady friend came to the rescue, assisted me home and put me to bed. But I did not get any ice-cream. Some men do, but I was not good enough, I suppose.

Please, ladies, indulge "Pilgrim" a little longer. Some wholesome advice is not out of place at this time. As you are the real meat in the nut, having fractured the outer shell or fabric, I shall proceed to discuss the kernel.

Drive Apollo, Adonnis, Soerates and many other young men from you, out in that mad sea of life, as it were, where the world knows no mutual sensibility with man; where amid the uncertain and devious paths of "Lovers' Lane," they pass their lives in a mad and unprofitable way.

Not wishing to occupy further space, Adieu.

Sentiments of one of the "OLD GIRLS AS IT WERE."

(Advertisement.)

And now cometh the Lord High Executioner, Officers and assessors attending. I have been told there were four or six; I am not sure which—however, the majority is greater than it was in the spring, it being only three then. This mountain of intellect hath labored and brought forth a mouse. (I have not learned the full particulars of this specimen of natural history) and I understand it wears the collar with becoming grace and submission. As I have some zoological curiosities of my own to exhibit, I can not devote too much time to this monstrosity, but refer you to another column of this paper under the heading of—

(Advertisement.)

I would not if I could detract any good (if any there be) from Pilgrim's advertisement in your last issue, yet feel constrained, if for no other purpose, to reply to it in so far as regards his comments on the ladies who so kindly took part in the drama. It may be they are in the "sear and yellow leaf" as he is pleased to call them, but for purity of life, care of home and its comforts for those they love—who I ask can point the finger of scorn and cry shame?

"Pilgrim," wander again—go east and cross the broad Atlantic—visit the cities of Europe, and when you come again to this "Switzerland of Oregon" we trust you will find the same ladies (if God spares their lives) ready and willing to take part in any and all things that are calculated to promote the welfare and happiness of any or all who may have a home among us or who may wish to hold sweet converse in harmony with another and for intellectual culture.

The Institute, however—the name came, was a grand and noble success, even if some craniums held but little brains. God knows if you do not that they would be proud and pleased to have more, yet are thankful, no doubt, for the little you are pleased to bestow upon them. I hope and trust it may be my good fortune to witness just such another meeting in our beautiful and prosperous city, and when it does occur I sincerely trust that the ladies "in the sear and yellow leaf" may be on hand to lend their aid and knowledge in the art divine as well as in the art dramatic, to the young ladies of Grants Pass. You may rest assured, dear Pilgrim, that both will be given with as much pleasure as their time and money for the late entertainment, and if agreeable to all parties they would no doubt let Pilgrim shine behind the curtain. A.

(Advertisement No. 2.)

To PILGRIM:—I think the writer "Pilgrim" acted unwisely and ill becoming a gentleman when, in last week's issue of this organ, he made a vile attack, and attempted to cast base imputations upon the honor and respectability of the ladies referred to in his article. It was an uncalculated, unwarranted and unjust action, as he well knows; and therefore, it is not a part of my woman's nature to remain silent and not resent it. I would now like to see him come forward and explain reasons for so doing, or, state on what grounds he is justified. He delights in clamoring loudly of having been a soldier, faced whole armies and so on. No doubt of it as we know it calls into requisition "heroes" to perform such noble deeds. Few men, much less gentlemen, would wish to bring into notoriety—into conspicuous notice—ladies of good standing who were acting under the impulse of honest intent and for the public good as well. This is the "card of thanks" extended us. We care not for "Pilgrim's" compliments, or even appreciation. We simply demand justice and decency. We will not state our line of action for the future, but if "Pilgrim" cannot appreciate or even tolerate the "Old Girls" he is at liberty to organize his young corps and conduct it to his own liking—the "Old Girls" lend a willing assent. If you wish to inquire further into our department &c., I trust you will interview the young gentlemen of our Club whom you so kindly mention, and to whom I most respectfully refer your lordship. We regard them as gentlemen, they having co-operated with us as becoming such; therefore feel no hesitancy in commending you to them. Now, Mr. Dictator, it is unnecessary to mention your name, we will only say in conclusion: We as a society in Grants Pass, dwell together amicably and peacefully until you cast your lot among us. It seems to be your sole desire to create animosity—a sensation of enmity with the real meat in the nut. Having fractured the outer shell or fabric, I shall proceed to discuss the kernel.

Drive Apollo, Adonnis, Soerates and many other young men from you, out in that mad sea of life, as it were, where the world knows no mutual sensibility with man; where amid the uncertain and devious paths of "Lovers' Lane," they pass their lives in a mad and unprofitable way.

Not wishing to occupy further space, Adieu.

Sentiments of one of the "OLD GIRLS AS IT WERE."

know this will be quite a hardship to endure, still you may find consolation in the fact that some day every mother must part with the lamp of her existence, who must embark on the tortuous and rocky highways of life, to seek a sweetheart, fame and fortune. Then welcome the young ladies to the drama, give them motherly advice; teach them what you know, and don't forget that you were young once yourselves and yearned for just such an opportunity. And be ever mindful that all the streams, no matter how they wander, turn and curve amid the hill and rocks, or linger in the lakes and pools, must sometime reach the sea.

And now, dear friends, as this scene is over, and the curtain about to drop, please stand from under, for in a former article some people were in the line of the curtain—at least, they thought they were. The consequence was, some were hit with the pole as it descended. Since then in my promenades on Broadway and the avenue, I occasionally meet a combination of thunder, lightning and iceberg. Now I do not mind this cool breeze in July, especially the iceberg. But if it continues on into the winter, I will be obliged to settle down to the comforting reflection that I have ninety-six per cent. of the hearts and well wishes of the people of the Pass to counteract the aforesaid breeze. As I have not dealt in person, either in Impression or The Kinks, I have no apology to make. If, however, any one should construe the meaning of my words as applicable to their position, I have but this to say: In criticizing the drama, I speak only of the characters as represented, and not the persons; therefore, I hope I may be excused if I take advantage of the privilege accorded every theatre goer.

As the father affords the strongest proof of love for his child by inflicting pain, that good may follow, so I have told you of your faults; not to please myself, but that you may be found in the audience, or at home with your husbands, where you can be each others own sweet company.

There, I have forgotten my headlines. It was my intention at the outset to write up an accident. Now I will do so in as few words as possible. There was a large edifice raised to the ground, during the Institute week, and there were many killed and wounded. When the ruins were searched however, the killed were only wounded, and the wounded badly scared. The author of this ruin has taken to the woods, and, ever thus will "Le coupable fair l'égal non pion pair sature."

There, I have forgotten my headlines. It was my intention at the outset to write up an accident. Now I will do so in as few words as possible. There was a large edifice raised to the ground, during the Institute week, and there were many killed and wounded. When the ruins were searched however, the killed were only wounded, and the wounded badly scared. The author of this ruin has taken to the woods, and, ever thus will "Le coupable fair l'égal non pion pair sature."

There, I have forgotten my headlines. It was my intention at the outset to write up an accident. Now I will do so in as few words as possible. There was a large edifice raised to the ground, during the Institute week, and there were many killed and wounded. When the ruins were searched however, the killed were only wounded, and the wounded badly scared. The author of this ruin has taken to the woods, and, ever thus will "Le coupable fair l'égal non pion pair sature."

There, I have forgotten my headlines. It was my intention at the outset to write up an accident. Now I will do so in as few words as possible. There was a large edifice raised to the ground, during the Institute week, and there were many killed and wounded. When the ruins were searched however, the killed were only wounded, and the wounded badly scared. The author of this ruin has taken to the woods, and, ever thus will "Le coupable fair l'égal non pion pair sature."

There, I have forgotten my headlines. It was my intention at the outset to write up an accident. Now I will do so in as few words as possible. There was a large edifice raised to the ground, during the Institute week, and there were many killed and wounded. When the ruins were searched however, the killed were only wounded, and the wounded badly scared. The author of this ruin has taken to the woods, and, ever thus will "Le coupable fair l'égal non pion pair sature."

There, I have forgotten my headlines. It was my intention at the outset to write up an accident. Now I will do so in as few words as possible. There was a large edifice raised to the ground, during the Institute week, and there were many killed and wounded. When the ruins were searched however, the killed were only wounded, and the wounded badly scared. The author of this ruin has taken to the woods, and, ever thus will "Le coupable fair l'égal non pion pair sature."

There, I have forgotten my headlines. It was my intention at the outset to write up an accident. Now I will do so in as few words as possible. There was a large edifice raised to the ground, during the Institute week, and there were many killed and wounded. When the ruins were searched however, the killed were only wounded, and the wounded badly scared. The author of this ruin has taken to the woods, and, ever thus will "Le coupable fair l'égal non pion pair sature."

There, I have forgotten my headlines. It was my intention at the outset to write up an accident. Now I will do so in as few words as possible. There was a large edifice raised to the ground, during the Institute week, and there were many killed and wounded. When the ruins were searched however, the killed were only wounded, and the wounded badly scared. The author of this ruin has taken to the woods, and, ever thus will "Le coupable fair l'égal non pion pair sature."

There, I have forgotten my headlines. It was my intention at the outset to write up an accident. Now I will do so in as few words as possible. There was a large edifice raised to the ground, during the Institute week, and there were many killed and wounded. When the ruins were searched however, the killed were only wounded, and the wounded badly scared. The author of this ruin has taken to the woods, and, ever thus will "Le coupable fair l'égal non pion pair sature."

There, I have forgotten my headlines. It was my intention at the outset to write up an accident. Now I will do so in as few words as possible. There was a large edifice raised to the ground, during the Institute week, and there were many killed and wounded. When the ruins were searched however, the killed were only wounded, and the wounded badly scared. The author of this ruin has taken to the woods, and, ever thus will "Le coupable fair l'égal non pion pair sature."

There, I have forgotten my headlines. It was my intention at the outset to write up an accident. Now I will do so in as few words as possible. There was a large edifice raised to the ground, during the Institute week, and there were many killed and wounded. When the ruins were searched however, the killed were only wounded, and the wounded badly scared. The author of this ruin has taken to the woods, and, ever thus will "Le coupable fair l'égal non pion pair sature."

There, I have forgotten my headlines. It was my intention at the outset to write up an accident. Now I will do so in as few words as possible. There was a large edifice raised to the ground, during the Institute week, and there were many killed and wounded. When the ruins were searched however, the killed were only wounded, and the wounded badly scared. The author of this ruin has taken to the woods, and, ever thus will "Le coupable fair l'égal non pion pair sature."