The large number of tramps that have struck Grants Pass during the last eight or ten days, rouses us to the conviction that our authorities might very profitably employ these gentry in road making or cutting wood for the court house. A good pile of wood and stone is about the most successful remedy for the tramp nuisance that has ever been discovered.

On last Tuesday, a dead shot of giant powder in the Siskiyou tunnel, was struck with the point of a pick and exploded, horribly mangle the mine laborers who were at work at the time. A Cole, a former resident of this place, though probably the least injured, will lose the sight of one eye, and sustained many severe bruises about the face and body. No deaths reported as yet from the accident.

For a display of ignorance, faulty expostulations, and egotism, recommend us to the man Dennis, who officiated in the pulpit of the M. E. Church on Sunday evening. Mr. Dennis informed his audience that he could talk for an hour, two hours, or all night, without getting tired. If a conglomerate mass of dislocated sentences, execrable English and meaningless repetitions can be called talking, we believe him. At the same time we would suggest to Mr. Dennis that no man of ordinary information and intelligence could listen to him for ten minutes without being tired. It is too bad that the people of Grants Pass should be forced to listen to this sort of thing, or stay away from church. The sooner Mr. Dennis ceases to prey upon religious people and goes to work, the better it will be for all concerned.

H. Anlauf, one of our most highly esteemed citizens, left last week for the Dalles, where he will assist his father-in-law in the management of a general store. His brother has taken charge of his farm near this place. His reasons for making the change was the result of a fall received some time ago, crippling one of his feet. Mr. Anlauf hopes to return under two years. He likes this country and says that he has made money since he came here two years ago. At that time he bought a farm at $1,000, upon which he paid but five dollars down, nearly all of which he says he made and paid from this ranch in two years. He says he could always sell everything he could raise at good round prices, and that the companies there is no market here is a very unjust one, and that the farmers do not supply the market one half the time. He says when he got ready to leave, he sold everything he had at private sale without leaving the house. We will be glad to have him return, in the mean time he will receive the Courier regularly.

We regret to learn that the supply store at tunnel two in the Siskiyou, and owned by Mr. Ad. Helms, was burned last Friday night, with a loss of $1,400 in stock. There was an insurance of $875.

Rev. Mr. Skipworth, of Ashland delivered an eloquent lecture on Wednesday evening to a large audience in the M. E. Church of this town. The discourse was a powerful appeal on the prohibition side.

Mr. Wm. Saunders, County Surveyor and general land agent, advertises in this issue. Mr. Saunders has taken a business trip down Kirby way, where he will be engaged in surveying for several days.

Grass and vegetation south of Hays hill is greener than on this side, which goes to substantiate the assertions made by the COURIER in former issues that superior stock ranges exist over on that side of the county.

A fight occurred last week in San Diego between non-union and union lumbermen, owing to the dismissal of the latter and employment of the former. No casualties have been reported. The union men have so far been successful.

Mr. J. H. Auld has now in stock a large assortment of choice hams, bacon and fresh lard, and keeps a fine lot of fresh beef and mutton always on hand, his constantly increasing trade bears witness to the satisfaction he is giving patrons.

A new ferry across Rogue river has been established at Foot creek by Messrs. Jones & Otten, and others. Large contracts for supplying the railway with wood, made the ferry a necessity. We believe the contract price for 4,000 cords was $3.25 per cord.

We regret to learn that Mr. F. Norris of Whiskey Creek, has been troubled with snakes. One, an old rattler, was killed in front of his cabin, another of the same species took possession of his cabin, and when Frank went to enter raised such a din that he resolved to camp in the tree all night. A neighbor shot his snakeship the next morning.

A Kerby man reports having heard forty shots fired by hide hunters one day this week, down in the vicinity of Bald mountain. The names of the parties are known. There are three of them and they have two jack hounds with them to park in the hides. If this report be true, an officer ought to be dispatched down there to investigate the matter.

The programme of the reading entertainment by Mrs. Larowe at Granite hall last Tuesday evening, was a pleasant one, and the audience evinced a hearty appreciation of her renditions. Mrs. Larowe excels in the comic vein, and her certain lecture and the girl's composition on hens took the house completely.—[Edging.]

Some parties about town have been supplying themselves with milk at the expense of cow owners in general. A number of complaints have been made of cows having been milked dry before they reached home. We would intimate that certain parties have been spotted, and will be prosecuted should their depredations continue.

The Recorder says that Bandon is about to become a seaport of considerable importance, and in proportions to depth of water on the bar of the river, it will be second to none on the Northwest coast. There are substantial reasons for this. The resources of the Coquille valley are of the richest and are greatly abundant, even now when development and bringing out are of things to be desired.

A terrible murder was committed in the Siskiyou on Tuesday, 9th inst. Caldwell, who was out on bail, on a charge of keeping a house of ill-fame, quarreled with one of the men about one of the women, when Caldwell walking up to the other party, shot him in the stomach, from the effects of which he died in two hours. Caldwell was arrested and is now jailed in Ashland. He appears to be a worthless character who has deserted his family for a life among profligate women.

A marriage took place last week at the residence of Mrs. Royal, which attracted general interest. The parties to this matrimonial event were Mr. Ray and Mrs. Haskins. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. P. Coleman, in the presence of a large number of friends and acquaintances. The happy pair have taken up their residence in the Asherham house. The remark made by the bride, that she had been married not a week, yet had an increase of nine in family, will be justly appreciated.

Mr. Glidden, the clever landlord of the Union Hotel at Kerby, has been interesting himself in blooded stock. He has a very fine thoroughbred short horn bull and some fine blooded Berkshire hogs. He has done much for that little village, having a well regulated wagon-shop and blacksmith shop in partnership with Mr. J. H. Bost.

Just finished a hack for William Nauche, made of Oregon wood, which is the handsomest and most skillfully made wagon we have seen anywhere in the country. They are also engaged making one for N. Delamatter, Mr. Hunt does the woodwork, and Mr. Glidden the ironing.

Jackson County Correspondence.

A correspondent of the Times informs us that a piece of sharp practice is being attempted by a certain party who recently located at Grants Pass. He applied to the board of School Land Commissioners at Salem and secured a deed to the farm of Mrs. Lucy Allen, an aged lady who has lived in possession of the land for a quarter of a century, and whose title to the property should never have been questioned. What makes the circumstances still more disparaging to that person is the fact that he is reported to be wealthy while the land in question is all that Mrs. Allen possesses. The School Land Commissioners should have been apprised of the true state of affairs by the local agent and we are certain that they would never have granted the deed. It is quite likely that they will yet revoke it, which should be done, if possible. Mr. Judson is criticised for not giving the information that Mrs. Allen and her deceased husband got a deed several years ago from San May, 2d that time the school superintendent of Josephine County, pursuant to a law then in effect. Judge Prim and Brower have been retained in behalf of Mrs. Allen and will probe the matter to the bottom. The sympathy of the community is certainly with Mrs. Allen.

Your correspondent took the above from the Jacksonville Times, and would just say that there are two sides to this as well as most other things. Having been in Grants Pass when the matter was being discussed, your correspondent called upon Mr. Judson and learned that he was altogether innocent in the case as follows: A gentleman wishing to speculate in lands of Josephine county secured a map of school lands, and seeing a vacant section, went down and inspected it. He found the land satisfactory and purchased it not knowing that the widow Allen had any claim to it whatever. He now offers it to her at a small advance on the purchase money. This course was straightforward and any injury was done unwittingly. There has been much land throughout this section appropriated without any title and is simply being squatted upon by parties who have no claim to it, and many who think they have a good title are really without. This episode may, and should result in a general inspection of titles. I believe the widow Allen has a deed from the County Superintendent which, under former laws, was good; if so, she should have no difficulty in establishing her claim. If not, it is better that she should know it now rather than later. I, with most of the people of her neighborhood, most sincerely trust that she may retain her land and be at no expense in the matter. It is altogether likely that the land office will cancel their second deed when they learn of the first, and this will settle the matter.

Some rock taken from the Jacksonville Mining & Milling company's tunnel recently, assayed $25,000 per ton. A great excitement has resulted and shares are selling readily.

Cris. Caldwell, charged with keeping a burly gurdy house at the Siskiyou mountain has been released on $100 bail. Two California men held to answer for debauching two girls, were discharged last week at the Ashland Justice court, no one appearing against them.

A daughter of N. S. Drew, of the Applegate, fell from a high board fence, breaking her left arm. Dr. Lempert set the injured limb which was very much bruised.

N. A. Jacobs, Deputy Sheriff, has been appointed School Superintendent in place of the late Wm. Priest. His appointment gives general satisfaction.

Your correspondent is pleased to notice that the COURIER is rapidly acquiring favor in this county. As the paper improves it will continue to increase in circulation here.

Mrs. Nina Larowe, an accomplished elocutionist who has entertained large audiences in most of the cities of the coast, as well as in the Eastern states, will give a reading entertainment at Music Hall on Saturday evening Aug. 13th. The readings will comprise a miscellaneous and widely varied selection, and will fill an evening of tragedy, comedy and farce, the comic element largely prevailing. Mrs. Larowe has established her professional standing in this state by reading in Portland, Salem and elsewhere, and from the many favorable notices given her by the press the following are selected from the papers best known in the state:

Whether comic or tragic, ludicrous or pathetic the theme, she sways her audience to the mood of the moment, and justly earned the applause her efforts so heartily elicited.—[Oregonian.]

Mrs. Larowe appeared perfectly at home in both comic and tragic pieces. The original comic piece is worth the price of admission.—[Salem Statesman.]

The School Girl's Composition on Henry is alone worth the price of admission.—[Portland Evening Telegram.]

The price of admission will be 25 cents. Reserved seats on sale at Kramer's Drug store.

The fruit growers about Ashland have had an abundant crop of berries during the season, yet have been unable to supply the northern market. How is it that with so much available fruit land and with a climate suitable for that purpose, more of our people do not go into the small fruit raising.

Look out for the S. P. D. & L. Co.'s fine stock of Hats and Caps which will arrive about Aug. 10th.

Noticing that Chas. Nickell, since his retirement from the management of the "Courier" has published libelous and slanderous matter concerning me in three (3) different issues of the "Democratic Times," I will say that during my management of the Courier I opposed all manner of rings, cliques and corruption. I therefore incurred the displeasure of some persons of questionable character to which element Mr. Nickell can justly claim to belong. Denunciations coming from such are regarded by the undersigned as a high and lasting compliment. Respectfully,

W. J. WIMER.

The S. P. D. & L. Co. will have the finest and most complete stock of Men's Clothing ever brought to Grants Pass, by next freight. 8-5tf
